

basis for negotiating a settlement some such proposal as was made to her solicitor in the letter of the defendants' solicitors of the 18th March. The learned Judge pronounced the usual order for administration, with a reference to the Local Master at Guelph; but it was directed that the order should not issue before the 15th May to enable the plaintiff further to consider a settlement along the lines suggested in the letter of the 18th March above referred to. R. L. McKinnon, for the plaintiff. C. W. Plaxton, for the defendants.
