

2. A request for the consent of the Requested State under this Article shall, upon the request of the Requested State, be accompanied by the documents mentioned in Article 5 as well as a record of any statement made by the extradited person in respect of the offence concerned.
3. If the charge for which the person was extradited is subsequently changed, that person may be prosecuted or sentenced, provided the offence under its new description is:
  - a) based on substantially the same facts contained in the extradition request and its supporting documents; and
  - b) punishable by the same maximum penalty as, or a lesser maximum penalty than, the offence for which that person was extradited.
4. Paragraph 1 of this Article shall not apply if the person extradited has had an opportunity to leave the Requesting State and has not done so within forty-five (45) days of final discharge in respect of the offence for which that person was extradited or if the person has voluntarily returned to the Requesting State after having left it.

Re-extradition to a Third State

1. Where a person has been surrendered to the Requesting State, that State shall not extradite the person to any Third State for an offence committed before that person's surrender, unless:
  - a) the Requested State consents to the extradition; or
  - b) the person has had an opportunity to leave the Requesting State and has not done so within forty-five (45) days of final discharge in respect of the offence for which that person was surrendered by the Requested State or if the person has voluntarily returned to the Requesting State after having left it.
2. The Requested State may request the production of the documents submitted by the Third State in relation to any consent pursuant to sub-paragraph 1 (a) of this Article.

Transit

1. To the extent permitted by its law, transit through the territory of one of the Contracting Parties shall be granted on a request in writing by the other Contracting Party. The request for transit may be transmitted by any means affording a record in writing and shall contain the information referred to in Article 8 paragraph 2.
2. No authorization for transit shall be necessary when air travel is used and no landing is scheduled in the territory of the transit State. In the case of an unscheduled landing that State may require the request for transit provided for in paragraph 1. The transit State shall detain the person in transit until the request is received and the transit is carried out, provided that the request is received within seventy two (72) hours after the unscheduled landing.
