

FEATURES OUTSIDE THE LEGISLATION

- Canadian Government would provide training for U.S. preclearance officers in Canadian law enforcement and Canadian legal standards.
- An armed Canadian law enforcement officer would be present at all preclearance areas (to ensure that Canadian law is obeyed) and to assist preclearance officers in the enforcement of Canadian law.
- Signs and pamphlets in the preclearance area would inform all travellers of preclearance procedures and travellers' rights.
- Intransit preclearance arrangements would be regularly reviewed by Canada and the United States.
