

2. In carrying out the plan of action, the Parties may, commensurate with the availability of resources, cooperate through:

- (a) seminars, training sessions, working groups and conferences;
- (b) joint research projects, including sector studies; and
- (c) other means which the Parties may decide.

3. The Parties shall carry out the cooperative activities with due regard to the differences that exist between each Party's national conditions, circumstances and needs, including with respect to their economies, their social and cultural traditions and their legal framework.

ARTICLE 10: Public Communications

1. Each Party shall provide for the submission and receipt of public communications on labour law matters that:

- (a) are raised by a national of the Party or by an enterprise or organization established in the territory of the Party;
- (b) arise in the territory of the other Party; and
- (c) pertain to any matters related to this Agreement.

2. Each Party shall consider such communications in accordance with domestic procedures and notify the public of communications accepted for review within 30 days of such acceptance.

ARTICLE 11: General Consultations

1. The Parties shall at all times endeavour to concur on the interpretation and application of this Agreement.

2. The Parties shall make every attempt, including through cooperation, consultations and the exchange of information, to address any matter that might affect its operation.
