

activities. These proposals, if approved, would permit the adoption of realistic conservation methods for sealing and would involve the phasing out of Norwegian fishing operations and acceptance of Canadian jurisdiction in the newly created 12 mile territorial sea and fishing zones off Canada's east and west coasts.

It was decided that the proposed agreements should be submitted to Governments and that there should be a further meeting between the two sides in Ottawa in mid-June of this year.