The Steel Company of Canada, Similed

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Montreal Canada

December 21st. 1932.

Dear Sir Arthur:

I find it extremely difficult to answer your appeal knowing how much time you give personally to the interests of others, and I feel very self indulgent by contrast.

I do most sincerely feel, however, as I explained to you yesterday, that I have rather more responsibilities than I can fully discharge at the present time. The work of the Financial Federation, I realize, could not be accomplished without devoting more time to it than I can see the possibility of sparing, not to mention the rather apprehensive feelings I have that my health has suffered as a result of what I am now attempting to accomplish.

I feel, therefore, that I can only thank you for the confidence you impose in me in suggesting my name and regret that, in view of all the circumstances, I am compelled to express my inability to take on the work. I am sorry to disappoint you.

Yours sincerely,

Letrin mal

General Sir Arthur W. Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B., LL.D., D.C.L., McGill University, Montreal.
