

place, the teacher may then suspend him from the school for a period not exceeding five school days. If the suspension be for refusing to do some definite act that may rightfully be demanded, it may be extended until the offender returns and does that which he had refused to do.

163 Whenever any teacher suspends a pupil, he shall at once notify the parents or guardians in writing stating the length of time for which the pupil is suspended and the reasons for such suspension.

164 When it becomes evident that the conduct of a pupil is such as to endanger the morals of his companions, or the authority of the teacher, and the ordinary modes of discipline fail to secure amendment, the head teacher may report the pupil to the school board for expulsion, and may suspend the pupil pending the decision of the school board.

165 Any pupil expelled from school by the school board shall not be re-admitted to any school in the municipality without the written consent of the school board; but any pupil expelled from school who shall express to the teacher his regret for his conduct as openly and explicitly as the case may require, may, with the approval of the teacher and the school board, be re-admitted to the school.
