TO THE VISITOR.

THIS is the only original, correct and reliable work in market. The author for several years has been personally and familiarly acquainted with all the points of interest in this "world's wonder," and great pains have been taken to make this work, in every respect, correct and worthy the attention of the tourist. The different routes and places are so arranged and minutely described, that the stranger cannot be misled or hesitate. These pages are given to the public with the belief that something of the kind is needed, inasmuch as works written by casual observers are either unnecessarily prolix upon some points, or not sufficiently clear and explicit upon others, to meet the wishes of the traveling public. This difficulty, it is believed, is entirely obviated in the following pages.

Follow the directions of this little work, and you can go to all points of interest on both sides of the river, without a mistake.

THE AUTHOR.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1868,

By F. H. JOHNSON,

In the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States, for the Northern District of New York.
