DAISY THORNTON;
AND JESSIE GRAHAM.

By MRS. MARY J. HOLMES

CLOTH, $1.00. PAPER COVERS, 50 CENTS.

"Those are the most delightful stories of the season. Full of power and incident, they are yet essentially natural and home-like, and abound in beautiful little sketches of domestic interviews and vivid pictures of natural scenery."—Boston Transcript.

---

FAMILY CREEDS.

By WM. McDONNELL

CLOTH, $1.25. PAPER, 75 CENTS.

"A POWERFUL ROMANCE of great interest by a Canadian Author. Sparing no pains to produce facts, deeply versed in religious history, with a strongly imaginative mind, Mr. McDonnell has indeed produced an interesting book."—Public Opinion.

---

THE SCARLET LETTER.

By NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE.

CLOTH, $1. PAPER COVERS, 50c.

"UNDERWOOD in his Hand-book of English Literature says: "The Scarlet Letter is probably the most imaginative, picturesque and powerful work of the kind in this country. . . . The genius of Hawthorne was unique; as the Germans say of Jean Paul Richter, he was Hawthorne the Only; his niche in the Temple of Fame will not be claimed by another."

---

THE CAT AND BATTLEDORE.

By HONORÉ D. BALZAC.

CLOTH, $1.00. PAPER COVERS, 50 CENTS.

"Written in his quaint and humorous style."—London Spectator.
