

the glory of his reign, and of the Songs and Sentences of Noorna, and of his Laws for the protection and upholding of women, in honour of Noorna, concerning which the Sage has said :

Were men once clad in them, we should create A race not following, but commanding, fate:

— of all these records, and of the reign of Baba Mustapha in Oolb, surely the chronicles give them in fulness; and they that have searched say of them, there is matter therein for the amusement of generations.

pen. Even so devices and in-
in sugars and
rag in search
! as the poet

emain :

beholding this
e guests in the n to exclaim in

n the City, and
of Barbers, who enefactor of his
ace of the Bag-
seed were the
ire stamped on

of Aklis to visit
rn to the labour
l of their ante-
ef nourished in rowful eyes of
ily, and of her
of receiving the Aklis ; and of monuments dee constancy of his esteem for
isdom ; and of