

Resemblance of Spanish Colonist to Old Spaniard—Californian happiness and ease—Compadres and Commadres—Californian hospitality—Bishop of Santa Barbara—Episcopal pomp—Roman see, its estimate of distant dependencies—Home-made wine and brandy—Church—Santa Guadalupe and the miraculous blanket—Organist—Candlemas Day, gunpowder—Valley of Santa Barbara—Aqueducts and cisterns—Grist-mill—Garden—Indian village, remarkably old woman—Ball with Scotch reel—Embarkation—Carcass of right whale—Perfect paradise for fish—Bishop's present of wine—San Pedro, Pueblo of Nuestra Senora with its bulls and its bears—Mission of San Gabriel—Valley of the Tulares, bands of horses—"Police" of California—San Diego—Concluding remarks on California—Gradual spread of English race in new world—Ultimate destiny of California—British claims, financial and territorial—Arrival in region of trade-winds 204

CHAPTER X.

VISIT TO HONOLULU, ETC.

Course and distance—Appropriate name of Pacific Ocean—Gradual increase of temperature—Bottle-nosed porpoise and flying-fish—Albatross and tropic bird—Amphibious voyage, its literary advantages—Volcanic mountains of Hawaii—Early discovery of Sandwich Islands by Spaniards—Cook's discovery accidental—Mutual relations of the islands of the group—Volcanic origin of group—Volcanic agency, its general direction—Lahaina, residence of king—Communication between islands in days of barbarism—Peopling of Polynesia—Brig Joseph Peabody—Ruggedness of Woahoo—First impression of torrid zone—Distant view of Honolulu—Harbor, its discovery—English pilots—Coral reefs—Everything to remind us of England, contrast between us and early navigators—Harbor, general description—Towing through channel—Governor Kekuanaoa and others—Our residence—Honolulu, population and buildings and climate, &c.—Valley of Nuanau, scene of important battle 224

CHAPTER XI.

SANDWICH ISLANDS.

Origin of the Hawaiian Nation—Amount of Population—Language—Food—Houses—Dress—Appearance and Disposition—Customs and Amusements . 238

Navy—
Manu

Trouble
Hono
Chine
reside
hams
bones
foreign haina lilio, a
quarte
Baldw
of Clu
to Lat
for se
chara
eloqu
toera
age to
the F
mon

Landing
Sukin
ment
back