

H. R. H. DUKE OF CONNAUGHT
INSPECTS THE BATTALION.

H.R.H. has, from the first, taken a keen interest in Canada's overseas forces. He is here seen inspecting the battalion on the Champ de Mars, Montreal. In front of the Duke is Col. Gunn, behind him is Col. E. W. Wilson, C.O. No. 4 Military District, Major Duff, A.D.C. who was recently invalided from the Belgian trenches; and Col. Denison A.G. (Photo, Chesterfield & McLaren.)

H.R.H. DUKE OF CONNAUGHT
INSPECTING THE BATTALION.

The Governor General, who has since been made Honorary Colonel of the 24th, inspected the Battalion on the Champ de Mars, Montreal, on the 17th December 1914. His Royal Highness is here seen questioning one of the men.

(Photo, Chesterfield & McLaren.)

