

natite, sometimes
oolitic character,
of iron in minute
ps out on several
g these different
veral miles, and,
nto some of the
e of the richest
bility render it
alyses made of
to 54 per cent.
proportions of
ne specimens.
osphoric Acid

Another deposit of Limonite, apparently of great magnitude, occurs on a mining area secured on the West Branch of the East River, near the Provincial Railway.

(See annexed reports and Tables of Analyses.)

MCGILL COLLEGE, MONTREAL, May, 1873.

ociated with
tz rock. It
lity of Ore
and steel.
ss of 20 ft.,
ge samples
analysis 64

Limonite
n Rocks.
n, and is
e areas
ers of a
h it has
of this
it has
een to