Share.—One of the equal parts into which the capital of a company is divided.

Stocks.—The shares of companies and the bonds of governments and corporations.

Sphere.—A solid bounded by a surface, every point of which is equally distant from a certain point within, called the centre.

Square Root.—One of the two equal factors of a number is called the square root of the number.

Trade Discount.—A deduction from the regular or marked price of an article.

Trapezium.—A four-sided plane figure having two sides parallel.

True Discount.—The difference between the present worth of a debt and the whole debt; hence true discount is equivalent to the interest on the present worth of the debt.

Wedge.—A triangular prism.