

BY-LAWS OF THE TOWNSHIP OF STEPHEN.

IV. It shall not be lawful for any person to use or have in his possession any devise for gambling, such as Faro Bank's, Rouge et Noire, Eaulette Table or any other species of gambling.

V. It shall not be lawful for any person to throw or put any carcass of any animal or any other nuisance on to any street, lane, or highway; that such carcass shall be cremated or buried as soon as possible after the knowledge of the decease of such animal by the owner.

VI. It shall not be lawful for any vagrant, mendicant or lunatic, or insane person to be permitted to have their liberty.

VII. It shall not be lawful for any person to make a public exposure of the person or other indecent exhibitions.

VIII. And be it further enacted that any person or persons who shall be guilty of any intransaction or breach of any of the provisions of this By-law shall, on conviction by any one or more of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace having jurisdiction within the said municipality, forfeit and pay for every such offence a fine not exceeding twenty dollars in the discretion of the convicting Justice, together with the costs of prosecution; failing to pay such fine and cost, the goods and chattels may be sold, or the offender or offenders may be imprisoned in the County Jail not exceeding 21 days, at the discretion of the convicting Justice.

Dated this 18th day of December, 1882.

C. PROUTY, Clerk.

VALENTINE RATZ, Reeve.
