

REWARD.

WHEREAS the Subscriber, of Lyme, in New-London County Connecticut, was wickedly left on shore about the 24th of August last, at Cape Negro Island, by one THOMAS PRESCOTT, with whom he sailed from St. Andrews, Passamaquoddi, in New-Brunswick, bound for Halifax. And whereas said Prescott is indebted to the Subscriber One Hundred and Twenty Pounds, for Goods sold him at St. Andrews, and has carried off with him a Number of Grindstones and Moose-skins, belonging to the Subscriber, shipped on board said Prescott's Schooner at St. Andrews, as also his Chest, containing his Money, Cloathes, and Papers, among which were sundry Obligations to the Amount of Three Hundred Pounds: The above Reward will be paid to whoever will secure the said Prescott, that he be brought to justice, by me
ELIJAH ELY.

N. B. Said Prescott has four Notes of Hand for Twenty Pounds each, given him by said Ely, being the Balance of some Bills of Exchange on London, drawn by said Prescott, and given by him in Payment for the aforementioned Goods, and which said Bills he was to redeem in Halifax with Cash and the Notes of Hand abovementioned but which Bills he has now carried off with him, and which said Ely has Reason to suppose were good for Nothing. He therefore warns Persons from purchasing said Notes.

Said Prescott is in a Schooner of about eighteen Tons, rebuilt at St. Andrew's, has her Mast and Topmasts in one Piece, and has her Cabin cieled over head. He is a small Man, about thirty Years of Age, thin Face, black Hair which reaches to his Waistband, and has on two Scars on the Top of his Head. He says he came from England, he speaks English, French, Spanish, and Dutch, and shifts his Dress very often.

SHELBURNE, October 1, 1789.