

(The Ceremony will then proceed, as already laid down, with the exception that when the P. S. C. R. has tried the Corner Stone with the Square, Level and Plumb-line, he will report to the S. C. R., who will then make the proclamation as follows:—)

P. S. C. R.—Supreme Chief anger, I find the Corner Stone well and truly laid.

S. C. R.—I proclaim the Corner Stone of the —— well and truly laid by ——.

(Cheers for the King, or President, or other ruler of the country in which the ceremony is performed, and cheers for the personage laying the Corner Stone, followed by music from the band.)
