TY TEAMS RETIRED FROM SINGLE RINK COMPE

Note and Comment

It was Granites hight at the opening festivities of the city single fink competition, the Varsity had the best percentage. The Church-street curiers won eight and lost five, while the Rah! Rah! boys played only one game and won it.

It speaks well for the different organizations that there was not a single default on opening night, every one of the thirty rinks toeing the hack as per schedule.

Out in Sapulpa, Okla, a fight promater is trying to bring together Carl Morris, the young giant who recently slaughtered Marvin Hart and Fireman Jim Flynn of Pueblo. If the match is made the men will ceme together in Sapulpa the last of the month, and Morris will have another chance to prove his assertion that he can whip one of the thirty rinks toeing the hack as per schedule.

If the match is made the men will come together in Sapulpa the last of the month, and Morris will have another chance to prove his assertion that he can whip any man in the ward. Morris, by the way, served three years in the United States army before he became a freight locomotive fireman. He is 6 ft. in tall, weighs 235 pounds and has a reach of 80 in. His photograph indicates wonderful physique and a fighting face. Morris may engage Wolgast's manager, Tom Jones, to handle his affairs.

There will be no more "overcoat betting" at the Emeryville race traces, Oakland, Cal. Neither will there be any other violation of the race traces, wagering on the horses but prohasts the regording of any bet. On behalf of the new Califarnia Jockey Club this assurance was given to the Alamed County grand jury by secretary Treac of the jockey club and sixteen book-makers.

At the Granite Dan Rice and Dr. Frawley had a nice friendly game, the former finishing the stronger. The University boys made a runaway race of it with Wilteddes. Howe of Parkdale finished one up on Adams of West Toronto, which was the nearest to a win for the suburbanites.

At Parkdale Blaylock of East Toronto retired Dr. Burns in a close contest, while Tom Rennie had only a romp with Wright of West To-onto.

At Lakeview, Day and Muntz, rival tankard, skips, clashed, the Prospect Park Jimmy Shields started out of righten Bob Rennie, but after a four-end the Queen City defeated Leonard. D. A. Fletcher, who set the base-ball world aflame last fall by his visionary plans for a third major league, has turned up in Pittsburg and, according to an enthusiastic correspondent, "scarcs Pittsburg Club stockholders silly" by holding a "mysterious conference" and examining Luna Park, Fletcher has little time left before his optional contracts with certain start baseball players, including Russell Ford of the Yankees, run out.
