

Baseball Toronto 4 8 To-day's Program Sports Ottawa's Lose At Henley

Note and Comment

Weather fine and cool is promised to-day, and a good program of sports and pastimes should be enjoyed by all. There are lacrosse, cricket, amateur baseball, the rowing regatta, yachting, golf and lawn tennis, and minor race horse meeting in the vicinity to mar the whole scene.

So near, and yet so far. Had Ottawa only given Magdalen the wash the Grand Challenge would surely have come to Canada. However, the capital crew did not, but no faster than others who have gone to Henley from these shores, the their friends on Parliament Hill hated them too early as the best.

An evening paper has it that Guelph O. L. A. Club cannot raise enough men for the game to-day with Young Toronto, while official notice says Guelph are unable to procure grounds. Anyway, the Y. T.'s need not worry about a twelve when they might find difficulty in getting together, as the Toronto press are working to-day in Montreal.

The fight between Curran of Ireland and Jack Johnson in Dublin is to be a finish for the championship of the world, but will hardly last as long as an amateur bout. The finish time to the combat would indicate that all the green Irishmen are not on the stage.

The Toronto Driving Club will run their first harness race meet at Dufferin Park on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 22, 23 and 24, with a good program, with adequate purses, will be put on each day. Secretary Charlie Shaw is now preparing the list.

LEAFS WON AND LOST BACHMAN'S GOOD WORK

Only Three Hits Made Off Toronto Twirler—Rowan Showed Up Well in Second Game.

BUFFALO, July 7.—A double-header was played to-day on account of the rain yesterday, and a fair week-day crowd saw all kinds of baseball playing here.

Bachman and Brennan were the opposing twirlers, and each pitched a splendid game. But for an error on each side at a critical moment, the Leafs would have been the victors by a score of 1 to 0. Mueller filled in at shortstop, taking the place of Vaughn, and he didn't make a bad job of it for a man new at the position. Delahanty was put out at the position in the second contest for arguing with the umpire when he was called out on strikes. Kelley took his place for Mueller, and then called on Taylor to finish the job. O'Hara also dropped out in the second game, owing to a slight indisposition and was shifted to left field, Rudolph going to centre.

The first game went on for six innings, while Toronto accumulated three runs in the first, principally thru Shaw's double, and two in the third on Truesdale's error, and a few hits. Buffalo did not have a look-in until the seventh, when Truesdale hit for a sacrifice and Kelley hit for a sacrifice and Kelley hit for a sacrifice.

The second game developed into a slug-fest, when the Leafs swooped down on Lush for eight hits in the fifth, which settled six runs. Schulz was twice and knocked out clean singles each time. In the seventh Schulz asked to be relieved, after passing both McKinley and Shaw. Taylor took up the burden, and was just about as liberal as the young fellow. Between the twirlers' liberality, loose fielding on the part of the Leafs who there were no actual errors, and a bit of two, the Leafs tied up the score in the eighth. In the ninth Toronto died. Kelley hit for a sacrifice and Kelley hit for a sacrifice.

Truesdale drew a base on balls, and Schulz followed with a two-run homer. Truesdale drew a base on balls, and Schulz followed with a two-run homer. Truesdale drew a base on balls, and Schulz followed with a two-run homer.
