PLACE BLAME ON WILKIE FOR HIS WIFE'S DEATH

Croner's Jury Heard Evidence, Indicating Severe Maltreatment of Woman.

"We find that Ellen Wilkie came to her death on Aug. 14, 1911, at 254 Clarence-street, from the effect of injuries received from the hands of her husband, Edward Wilkie. We exonerate Frank Perry from any implication in her death." This was the verdict of the jury at the inquest held at the morgue yesterday afternoon, when the coroner, Graham, regarding the death of Mrs. Ellen Wilkie.

Mr. Charles W. Johnson, No. 1, was notified of the disturbance at the Wilkie home about 10 p.m. He went to the door and found Wilkie and wife scuffling. Mrs. Wilkie asked him not to leave because her husband had been abusing her all night. After having quieted matters, he left about 11:10.

Dr. S. Singer, 104 Simcoe-street, who with Dr. Silverthorn, performed the post-mortem, testified that Mrs. Wilkie had suffered from heart disease. He believed the treatment that she had received on the night of her death would not hasten her death.
