THE REPOSITORY CORNER OF SIMCOE AND NELSON STREETS, TORONTO. Burns & Sheppard, Proprietors. Canada's GREATEST HORSE MARKET

The business known as THE REPOSITORY was founded in the year 1856, just half a century ago, by the late Mr. Joseph Grand, and was continued for many years by his successor, Mr. Walter Harland Smith, who, finding the old Adelaide Street premises inadequate for the carrying on of the greatly increasing business, launched out into the larger and more pretentious buildings at the corner of Simcoe and Nelson Streets, where the,

The past year, under the present management, has witnessed an unprecedented volume of trade, surpassing by far that of any previous year in the history of this mammoth establishment. With the increased accommodation we shall be prepared to offer for the season of 1906 we expect to still further enlarge the volume of trade

We are Canadian agents for the sale of the famous "GILLIAM" HORSE BOOTS, which include the greatest variety and most perfect fitting boots ever supplied to the horsemen of America, and which to-day are worn by nearly every famous trotter and pacer that has a fast mark. Every line manufactured at the noted factory is kept in stock by us, and customers in any part of the Dominion who forward us orders can have same supplied to them Ly following mail.

We desire especially to direct the attention of customers to our assortment of SLEIGHS. We not only keep the everyday ordinary Sleigh, but we also deal in the famous Russian Sleighs, also all the leading styles made by the most famous makers in Montreal.

In Carriages the assortment is thoroughly up-todate. It includes every variety of vehicle, and the stock has been selected with rare care, while our prices are away below the usual standard. In Harness, we not only manufacture ourselves, but we are heavy importers of the choicest English and American goods in this line. Our stock of Horse Furnishings is the greatest in this market. We deal direct with the most noted manufacturers, and in foreign made goods im port direct. Every novelty is received by us as soon as put on the market, and it will afford us much pleasure to show customers through our mammoth salerooms.
