Chicago Gossip.

Marshall. Spader & Co. wired J. G.
Beaty at the close of the market:

Wheat—More Dec. liquidation and a giving way of the Northwestern markets have worked lower prices here. Spring wheat values were recognized to have gotten beyond reasonable milling difference in value as compared with winter, and the Northwestern longs were becoming aware of it. The pressure there and here cost this market %c for Dec. and ¼c for May. Trade was dull most of the session, but it increased as the day advanced, Cash wheat has been in good demand and relatively firm in all markets.

A widening difference between Dec. and May would not surprise us, and, think of it, our good No. 2 red is selling 9c below No. 1 northern in Minneapolis. Buy May wheat. When the Dec. bugbear is out of the way we believe it will advance.

MPERIALISM NEEDS COHESION

A Little Taste of Isolation Makes Colony Too Self-Reliant.

Rev. Dr. Milligan addressed the Empire Club at yesterday's luncheon, on "Imperialism and the Balance of Pow-

Any nation which depended on external support is doomed to decline, he said, and the same commercial confidence and co-operation which is necessary in the world of commerce and finance is even more essential between those integral parts of the empire, if our greatness is to be continued and maintained. He instanced the Greeks, Romans and other nations past and gone, who, by a system of selfish policy and arrogant belief that they alone were worthy of development, brought about their own undoing.

Hamar Greenwood's View of York Chamber of Commerce Resolution

London, Nov. 22.-The York Women's Liberal Association held a social gathering last night, about 300 attending the tea. Hamar Greenwood presided over the subsequent proceedings, He was also a guest of the York City Bicycle Club dinner, and presented the prizes.

The Canadian Associated Press learns a special meeting of the York Chamber of Commerce has been called for Monday next, when Arthur Humfor Monday next, when Arthur Humphreys will move. That the chamber is of opinion Mr. Greenwood exceeded his duty as York delegate at the London meeting of the Associated Chambers of Commerce in speaking against the resolution of the Montreal chamber re commercial relations between the mother country and the colonies, also that the York delegate had no mandate from this chamber to vote against the resolution, and that a copy of this resolution be sent to the executive committee of the associated chamber, with the tee of the associated chamber, with the request that the vote of the York chamber be expunged from the min-commons to-day Earl Lonsdale asked Secretary Grey whether the enforcement of the provisions of the Bait Act by the Newfoundland government against colonial fishermen who enlist on American vessels, involved a breach of the modus vivendi, and whether the American government had yet made any representation. Grey said he was not prepared to say that this involved a technical breach of the modus vivendi the practical working of which
