Entries From Long Island and Brooklyn.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—Spirited races marked the six preliminaries to the annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, held on the Schuylkill River course this afternoon. The regatta was international in character, for the United States and Canada were represented. The Canadians were the surprise of the day. They either were placed or won every event in which they the surprise of the day. They enter placed or won every event in which they competed. Jenkes and Toms, rowing for the Argonaut R.C. of Toronto, were easily victors in the seniot pair-oared shells and Thompson and Toms just as easily in the intermediate double-sculls. In the association single sculls, rowed in one heat, John O'Neill of the St. Mary's A.A. of Halifax, was second, and W. Bowler of the Don R.C., Toronto. was third.

To cap the climax, the Argonaut's senior four-oared crew made à runaway race of this event, beating the Ravenswood B.C. of Long Island and the Seawanhaka B.C. of Brooklyn. The Brooklyn craw was a favorite, even over the Canadians, and its defeat was a big surprise.

Germany was represented in the regatta by Waldemar Sand of the Helias R.C., Berlin. He rowed in the second heat of the intermediate singles, but was outclassed from the start. He had recently been ill, however.
