

CRUSHING DEFEAT FOR GOVERNMENT

THE WINNER.

DUNLOP PRAISES HIS FOE.

Pembroke, Dec. 27.—(Special).—Ned Dunlop, M.L.A., is a proud man of 27 to-day, but he does not look or act otherwise than he did yesterday. It will be much that will turn his head, and if he keeps his head on him all men agree there is much in store for him. The proudest woman in North Renfrew is his mother, who has been his guide and counsellor throughout the campaign. When he was sure he was elected on Saturday night he sent his first message to her, and her "I am glad, Ned" was worth to him more than the 250 telegrams he received from all over Canada, grateful as he is for the kind congratulations of his friends.

Speaking to The World to-day he said: "I am proud of my friends, both Liberal and Conservative, who stood by me. I attribute the result to the widespread dissatisfaction of the Liberals of North Renfrew with the Ross government and with the corrupt machine. The death knell of the machine has been sounded. The organization of the riding by Mr. Birmingham was perfect. My personal canvass of the electors three separate times won me friends. Mr. Gansy did yeoman service throughout the campaign. He gave heart to our friends and disheartened our enemies. Lorne Hale and I are the best of friends. I don't think there will be any protest. The majority is too big, besides Lorne Hale is a fair fighter. No word of protest is spoken by the Liberals."

TOO HEAVY A LOAD.

Montreal, Dec. 26.—(Special).—"I was defeated by the Ross government rather than by my friend Dunlop."

The above remark was made to-day at the Carlsberg by no other than Mr. J. Lorne Hale, the defeated candidate in yesterday's contest in North Renfrew. When it is remembered that the unsuccessful candidate in Muskoka attributed his defeat to the same cause as does Mr. Hale, it can well be said that while yesterday the government's word might have stood against the whole world to-day there is none so poor as to

Just as soon as Mr. Hale had received the complete returns of the great disaster which had fallen upon the corrupt and repudiated government at Toronto he took the train for Montreal, reaching here this morning at 10 o'clock. He certainly did not appear at all cast-down over the result, and altho he did not say so, he seemed quite satisfied, since the fortunes of political warfare had gone against him, that his friend should be the winner. Mr. Hale, while discussing the result with friends, laid stress upon the fact that the Ross administration was the cause of the party's overwhelming defeat in North Renfrew.

In conclusion, after recounting the incidents of the long and tiresome fight, in which he had taken part, the speaker again expressed his appreciation of the honor thrust upon him, and with visible signs of emotion thanked his supporters from the bottom of his heart.

The member-elect for North Kennewick was given a tremendous ovation. He was the first of a long line of dozen workers in the cause were brought forward one by one to fight the battles of the union. The speaker declared it was enough of victory. It was a long time since a Conservative success, and their thirst for triumph was insatiable.

Due to Boltes.

In the rural districts the converting of Ernest Schmidt to the cause of the Conservative majority of 33 in the Township of South Algonia, was due to Dr. Chanabonow and Dr. Maloney, two of the best of the local physicians. The town cannot be bought. The result was due to a great measure to the fact that he gained in the regard of the people in the time that his employees of the factories owned by Conservatives voted with the party. Besides this, the fact that the liberal cause had broken disgusted with the Ross government James Findlay, Aid. Stewart and Ernest Schmidt demonstrated this fact.

Denis Murphy, M.L.A., was proud of the electors, because they had taken the town to their hearts and had refused to remain bought. Billy Wilmans, barrister, told how the Liberals had been elected, and how they had kept them from voting Conservative, and how Dr. Deacon had revived them. Mr. Murphy then said that Dunlop had been elected just as a Dunlop, his father before him, had been elected. He then said that he would add a word to the audience. Mr. Murphy thought that he should be a good deal as well as triumphant.

Alex. Campbell, roadmaster on the P. R., raised three cheers for James F. Smith, the candidate for Governor. Liberals who had contributed to the success of Dunlop.

Ernest Schmidt, the most prominent German in the city, formerly a Liberal, declared that Ned Dunlop every time was the man who should be, and would be, elected in North Renfrew.

employe of the Temiskaming Railway, getting $3000 a year, with taking the oath and voting.

Robert Birmingham, in answer to repeated calls for a speech, declared that he had come to this to see the last of the Liberal machine. "I have smashed the big machine. I am the only part of the little machine that ected Ned Johnson. He carried off the machine from Quebec, Buffalo and distant points in Ontario to steal the election. The presence of members of the legislature and lawyers at the polls. When he first met the Conservative candidate, he had said to him "I am going to win this election." He believed the machine had spent $50,000 only to be whipped. It was a victory over the Germans and Jewish Socialists, added by the Germans of North Renfrew.

He did not work, but trusted to the machine. Then there were about ten other men who had the nomination, and because they did not have the necessary money, and they could not get it, they came into their aid for hire. He was practically knuckled by his friends. The official vote was taken, and he was sneered by Sutherland, were all right but they were not carried out by the machine. They were the machine, it was the rank and file of the party had been deceived by the machine, that they thought it was not necessary to

After cheers for Dunlop, Whitney, Gamey, Fox and others, the meeting broke up. The enthusiastic Conservatives crowded into the hall, to the rooms, to the town square to set off fireworks, to the Copeland house to cheer the candidates, to cheer the defeated candidate, up and down Mainstreet cheering for Dunlop and Gamey, and down the street cheering for Fox, exhausted by the fulness of their joy, they went home to sleep the clock on.

One of the features of the street races was the "Penny Race," in which any work themselves. Dunlop had this race, and won it, and our men could not win it back.

Fund Mismanagement.

The campaign fund was mismanaged, to the extent of $200. The treasurer, Sutherland told me, on Saturday afternoon. Somebody got away with the money, and the money was lost. Other men who Sutherland told me would take care of certain voters, and the money was lost. Sutherland, Stratton did Hale no good. His failure to meet Gamey on the same parody on Mr. Dooley each verse of which ended with "the man from Manitoulin," and in which Mr. Stratton was declared to have been done up.

Causes of Turnover.

Mr. Stratton, a Communist, was the cause of the loss to the victory, said the riding was better organized than ever before. The party had a good man to work for and the workers never let him down. He was a good man and a good worker and never spared himself or his party.
