ther, 686 William street. RICE—In memory of Manley Gram Rice, who died of wounds received at Vimy Ridge, May 28, 1917. Mild and gentle, as he was brave— When the sweetest love of his life he To simple things. When the violets grew,

Pure as the eyes they were likened to. The touches of his hand were stayed, As reverently as his lips have prayed. When the little brown thrush that harshly chirred, Was dear to him as the mocking-bird; And he pitied as much as a man i A writhing honey-bee wet with rain.

Think of him as the same, I say— He is not dead; he is just away.—Father, Mother, Sisters and Bro-MEETINGS.
