

PLEASED WITH STAND ON MACSWINEY CASE

"That a cable be sent to Premier Lloyd George as follows:

"That the county of Middlesex Loyal Orange Lodge representing 5,000 United Empire Loyalists, admire your stand in regard to the MacSwiney case, and that our sympathy goes out to the widows and orphans of the Loyalists of Ireland, both Protestant and Roman Catholic, who have lost their husbands and fathers in defence of the Empire. We have no sympathy for cowardly would-be suicides."

This resolution was passed by the East Middlesex County Loyal Orange Lodge at a special meeting held in the district Orange hall, Market lane, on Saturday night, in connection with the international celebration which is to be held in London in 1921.

UNANIMITY PREVAILS AT WORLD MEETING

Rev. Leslie Armitage Tells of Spirit of Fellowship At Lambeth.

Rev. Leslie Armitage preached a most interesting sermon on Sunday morning, outlining to his congregation the meeting of the bishops and archbishops from the world over at the Lambeth Conference held recently in London, England.

Mr. Armitage during the course of his sermon mentioned the bishops and archbishops from the various countries throughout the world making special reference to Bishop Oluwole of West Africa, who is a native of that country. He mentioned the bishop as being of a particularly fine character, saying that his predecessor had been the son of an African slave. Bishop Oluwole, at the unveiling of the monument of Abraham Lincoln had in an impressive manner placed a wreath on the monument, as token of gratitude to the slave-freeer from the bishop and fellow countrymen.

The speaker took the word, "Fellowship," for his subject, and particularly mentioned the great spirit of fellowship that existed at the Lambeth conference, how, despite the fact that there were 252 bishops present, all decisions made were unanimous. The Lambeth Conference, the speaker said, was held every ten years, and called the Lambeth Conference because it is always held at the Archbishop of Canterbury's residence in Lambeth. The Anglican Church throughout the world, and is held for the purpose of discussing momentous questions in the religious world and plans for further advancement of Christianity.

BREAD PRICE SAME UNTIL FLOUR DROPS

Edward Parnell of Winnipeg
President of Local Firm,
Gives Interview.

Edward Parnell of Winnipeg, president of the Parnell Bread Company, this city, who has spent nearly a month here supervising the reconstruction of the company's plant, which when completed will be one of the most up-to-date in Ontario, made the following statements today in an interview in reference to the report of the board of commerce, which appeared in Saturday's paper:

"The report as I read it in your paper Saturday seems to me to leave the impression in the minds of the public that the price of bread the province over was 13 cents a loaf. The facts are that in Ontario the price of bread that has ruled for months past in all but three of its communities has been 14 cents a loaf. London is one of the exceptions, the price here being 13 cents for a 1½-pound loaf, or 8-7-0 cents a pound. The report leaves a further impression that the price of bread would be lowered owing to reductions in the price of flour. Such may be the case, where bread sells for 14 cents, but as far as London and other towns where 13 cents is the prevailing price is concerned flour will have to drop as much as it has already dropped before it will be possible to consider the further lowering of prices. The only way that the 13-cent price has been maintained in this city is because we and other bakers have carried large stocks of flour which was bought prior to the last big increase. We felt that as we had a margin on our sales at the price we bought flour it was our duty to give the public the benefit of our wise buying and the 13-cent loaf was the result."

Mr. Parnell leaves this week for Toronto to attend the meeting of the boards of trade and the chambers of commerce of the Empire as a delegate from Winnipeg, and on the 23rd of September he is to address the National Association of the Baking Industry on his impressions on trade and labor conditions in Australia, at Atlantic City, where a convention of North American bakers is to be held.

—Miss Marjorie Stevenson left today to resume her position as principal of the public school at Bothwell.

Miss Mary Wilkinson of 32 Elmwood avenue, has been appointed principal of the public school at Coatsworth, Ont., and has left to assume her duties.

POLE-BOX TROUBLE.

Under the impression that a motor was on fire, the department responded to a call at the corner of Dundas and Clarence streets on Saturday night. On arrival there it was found that a box on a telephone pole was the cause of the alarm. The telephone authorities were called and remedied the matter.

"SHABBY TREATMENT" DECLARES EXHIBITOR

Citizen Criticizes Treatment
Dog Owners Are Getting
At Fair.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

With the announcement of the opening of the Western Fair one will note, if they read carefully, the charge for admission has been increased to 50 cents. Why? Is the Fair going to be twice as good as in previous years. We hope so, but in the meantime we will reserve judgment. The Toronto Fair of this year was a decided improvement over other years, but the admission remained the same, namely, 25 cents. We will review the Fair's betterment in the dog show. This year I have it on good authority that there will be less than 150 dogs entered. Again we ask, why? Here is one reason: Shabby treatment of dog owners at large. This year the dog owner has the privilege of paying 50 cents admission if he or she wishes to dine at home and return to the show to exercise their dogs and water them after the evening meal. Of course, you need not pay the half-dollar if you care to leave your dog tied up from 6 o'clock p.m. until 8 or 9 o'clock next morning. But what dog lover would care to do that?

I think the voters of London showed considerable judgment in turning down last January the Fair extension plan until such time as there is a house-cleaning among the powers that be of the Western Fair board, and we are not overlooking the fact that this year the Dominion Government gave a subsidy to the Fair's betterment. I think the citizens of London are entitled to some explanation.

In making this criticism I wish it understood that there is not the slightest complaint against the superintendent of the dog show, who has always been most courteous and obliging.

ONLY REAL PEACE IS PEACE WITH GOD

If People Believed As Paul, No
Seeking After Mushroom Life.

"If people believed as Paul did when he spoke of living in the peace of God and a spirit of thanksgiving, there would not be so many folks running after a mushroom variety of life, as there are today," declared Rev. D. C. MacGregor at the morning service in St. Andrew's Church yesterday. "This is no pious platitude of St. Paul's, but a real experience. And such peace as he refers to is the only real peace. Riches give a certain amount of peace, in that the mind has no longer to worry about starvation in the future. Health also brings a certain kind of peace. Christian Science brings a certain form of temporary peace when it induces its believer to think that the troubles which harass him do not exist. But none of these forms of peace are between God and man. Real peace is not a state of rest or passivity. It is intensely active, but like a great machine, where every part works in harmony with every other part."

At the evening service Mr. MacGregor took for his subject "The True Test of Life," showing how life cannot be great until its ultimate end is known; that youth cannot afford to be thoughtless, because its greatness consists in working toward some ultimate end.
