FOR TWO EX-CONDUCTORS Others in Conspiracy Case Get a Year-Three Years for Woman Who Suborned Perjury.

THREE YEARS IN THE PEN

G. T. R. conductors Daniel Corrigan and Frank McCallum who carried passengers on fake tickets and assisted in defrauding the company, were yesterday sentenced by Judge Winchester to three years in Kingston penitentiary. Joseph Wood and Harry Rosenbes, who conspired with the conductors and sold the bogus tickets, were each given one year, while, Jacob Wood, also charged with defrauding, was allowed suspended sentence. "You were trusted employes. You were paid good wages. There was no reason why you should defraud," said the judge to the conductors. Petitions for leniency were presented, to which the names of prominent citizens of Kingston and Brackville were at-tached.

I know in mix-ing with the world, your honor, I have heard it stated that the corporation is treated with a partiality in the courts, and that the employe is not shown the same partiality. I can't say that this has been my experience, and I don't say that it's true of any court in par-ticular. Corporations can been within ticular. If he means that the company has been pursuing these unfortunate men he has been mistaken. No official of the G.T.R. has approach-ed me nor shown any unusual desire that these men should receive any-thing but the punishment for their ac-tions."

Dr. Pollard and Mrs. Tinsley, found guilyt of performing a criminal opera-tion, were remanded in custody pending an appeal on April 18.

Mrs. Catharine Quinn, who went into hysterics when convicted, received her sentence of three years with calmness. "You were properly convicted of a very serious offence," said his honor.

DERHAPS you thought we had reached our limit of surprises when we opened out the new Dress Goods Department. MONTREAL, March 29.-(Special.)-J. A. Archambault, the commission-er appointed to go to Ireland to enquire into John Dillon's family history, has written to Judge Slootte that two of Dillon's cousins and one female cousin were crazy, that one of Dillon's uncles hanged himself, and that another cut his throat. Besides this, people in Ireland who knew Dillon when he was a young man believe his mind was unhinged. Dillon shot Constable Shea, who was attempting to secure his arrest in a Church-street $500, Clinton-street DEADLOCK IN GRAIN CARRYING Essex-street $800, Kew Beach Marine Men and Shippers Can't Agree on Bill of Lading. At a meeting of the Dominion Marine Association, held yesterday after-noon in the King Edward, to hear what proposition the grain shippers had to offer in response to the new bill of lading adopted by the association on Feb. 2, it was announced that the ship-pers absolutely refused to consent to any compromise. The vessel owners will stick by the new bill, so the matter looks like a deadlock at present. Under the old bill of lading vesse owners had to pay shortage and were paid for overage on grain shipped from Port Arthur or Fort William. The shortage got so heavy that the owners refused to accept the bill of lading and a new bill was adopted limiting the shortage to one-half bushel on 1000 bushels carried. The shippers claim that they can ship in American boats to Buffalo and thence to New York. The rate from Fort William to Buffalo is 1 1-2 cents and Buffalo to New York 4.90 cents. Canadian vesselmen are willing to car-ry grain from Fort William to Montreal for 5 cents, as against 6.4 cents by the American route to the seaboard.

American owners, the Canadian marine men say, will ship on the same bill as their own new one.

In the resumed enquiry before Justice Teetzel yesterday in the action of the liquidator of the Lake Ontario

Navigation Co. against W. E. Davis for balance alleged to be due on the purchase of 130 shares of stock, and against S. F. Hutchinson, former president of the company, for $1300, paid on account thereof, Davis testified that when he gave the cheque he had no funds in the bank, but that next day he deposited $525 and by the end of the month had $1485 on deposit. During the interval, he had changed his mind when Hutchinson had said there had been "a devil of a row among the directors," and had telephoned the bank stopping payment of the cheque. He had signed a proxy on the 130 shares in favor of Judge Hisson, whom he did not know.

Arthur Jackson of the Traders' Bank said there was no record of the paytent of cheque having been stopp Counsel argued that a legal allot-ment of the stock had not been made, ecause Davis had stipulated he would not be liable for anything but the $1300, but the liquidator urged that the directors would be responsible for this. The judge, in reserving judgment, said that if he did not hold Mr. Davis liable for the call on the stock purchased, he would not hold Mr. Hutchi-son liable for the loss of the cheque. but a finding that the stock was legally transferred to Mr. Davis would e binding on Mr. Hutchison as to the
