HON. JAMES BARNES

(Toronto Globe)
Hon. James Barnes, who has just enterdent the cabinet of New Brunswick as a minister without portfolio, is a native of Ontario, having been born near Toronto in 1842. When a young man he went to New Brunswick for his health, settling at Shediac, and has remained in that province ever since. He restarted a leather business, and later removed to Buctouche, where he engaged in lumbering, farming and railroading. In 1892 he entered politics for the first time, but in this election he was defeated. Renominated again in 1895, he was elected, and since that date has received the representation of Kent.
In politics he is a Liberal, and in religion an Episcopalian. His wife was formerly Miss Julie Smith of Buctouche. Mr.
Barnes has had a most successful career, and is at the present day engaged in large business interests. He is president of the James Barnes Construction Company, and is interested in oyster beds. For a numis interested in oyster beds. For a number of years he was a valuable member of the public accounts committee of the legislature. Among the business enterprises which Mr. Barnes carried out successfully was the building of the Central Railway from Chipman to Norton. Horf. Mr. Barnes is a gentleman of good address, an able and forcible speaker, and is very popular with his brother members of the legislature.

TUNNEL SAVES A 110 MILE JOURNEY

VIENNA, July 22—The work of piercing the five and a half mile tunnel through the Tauern Mountains in Tyrol, a few miles south of Gastein, has just been completed. The work has occupied six years, and it is the last important work in the completion of the Alpine railways. The new tunnel will shorten the journey between Salzburg and Trieste by 110 miles.
