The last tear I shed was the warm one that fell.
As I k shed thee, dear mother, and bade thee farelwell;
When I saw the deep anguish impressed on thy face,

And felt, for the last time a mother's embrace;
And heard thy choked accents, impassioned and wild,
"God bless thee, for ever! God bless thee my child."

I thought of my boyhood—thy kindness to me,
When youngest and dearest, I sat on thy knee;
Of thy love to me ever so foundly expressed,
As I given up to manhood, unconscious how blest;
Of thy praises when right, and thy chidings when
wrong,
While wayward with passions unyielding and strong.

I thought of thy connsels, unheeded or spurned,
As mirth had enlivened or anger had burned;
And how, when by sickness all helpless I lay,
Thou didst nurse me and sooth me by night and
by day;
How much I had been both thy sorrow and joy,
And my feelings o'erflowed, and I wept like a boy

Years, years of endurance have vanished, and now There is pain in my heart, there is care on my brow;
The visions of hope and of fancy are gone,
And cheerless I travel life's pathway alone;
Alone! aye alone,—though some kind ones there be.

There are none here to love me—to love me like thee. My dear mother, dear mother, cold-hearted they deem

Thy offspring, but O, I am not what I seem;
Though calmly and tearless all changes I bear,
Could they look in my bosom, the feeling is there!
And now, sad and lonely, as memory recalls
Thy blessing at parting again the tear falls.

The U. S. Brig Perry has arrived at Norfolk. She sailed from Norfolk Dec, 1843, has made a voyage round the world, distance sailed 55,500 miles, and been gone 20 months, and visited the following places—Rio de Janeiro, Cape Town, Java Head, Angel, Macao, Horg Kong, Bocca Tigris River, Mazatlan, San Blas, Sandwich Islands, Society Islands, and Valparaiso.—She has been at sea 426 days, and only 136 in port, which is more active craising than any other vessel in our navy has ever had in the same space of time. She has encountered 27 heavy gales, lost 5 quarter boats, thrown over 2 guns, lost a foremast, two officers, and two men.

Sall of the Bonaparte Paintines.—It took place in New York on the 18th Sept. The biddings were extremely spirited. The gross amount of the sale was twenty thousand dollars. "Two lions an ia fawn," a good specimen of the master, (Rubens.) brought two thousand three hundred dollars. A marine pieces, "the storm," (Vernet, brought a thousand dollars. A landscape by Dennis, brought the same price. The "group of children," with a wreath of fruit and flowers, (Rubens and Theiders,) brought two thousand dollars. The alion caught in a net," by Rubens, brought eightteen hundred dollars. The other pictures were sold at various prices from one to five hundred dollars.

A professedly reformed thief.—Jane Hinckley alias a Taney, was discharged from the female department of the City Prison on representations that she greatly wished to reform. Mr. Bogart the keeper in accordance with her request, gave her a letter to Miss Wood, a philanthropic lady, and commended the woman to her as one who wished to "sin no more" Instead of going to Miss Wood as directed, she went ond stole 3 workman's shovels from three laborers, and being caught with them in her a possession was taken before the Police. There, the note to Miss Wood was found in her pocket, and she was sent to prison to ponder on the improvement in her thorals.—New York Sun. Wood, a philanthropic lady, and commended the woman to her as one who wished to "sin no more" Instead of going to Miss Wood as directed, she went ond stole 3 workman's shovels from three laborers, and being caught with them in her a possession was taken before the Police. There, the note to Miss Wood was found in her pocket, and she was sent to prison to ponder on the improvement in her morals.—New York Sun.

A Pardonable Mistake.—A gentleman, last week, got into a Broadway stage in which were ten pretty girls. Upon ascending the steps, he paused for a moment, dazzled by the beauty before him.

'There is room, sir; sit down,' said one of the amiable ladies.

'I thank you,' said the gentleman, getting in thought of getting into an omnibus, but I have entered paradise?'—

'What do you call an impression? asked a young lady of a lypo.

'Then take that as a token of thanks,' she replied, slapping him in the face.

'Pray don't batter my form,' begged poor typo.

'Then keep it locked up,' retorted the miss.

"No gentleman admitted without pantaloons on." The above notice was posted up among other rules for the good government of "a select Ball" which came off in Mexico during the hotmonth of June last. So says a friend of the New York Patriot's, who was on there, and danced with a lady with nothing on but a blue ribbon, and a string of beads.

The effects of Schish.—Bishop Soule says that there has been a decrease of 45,435 members in the northern section of the methodist church

THE EFFECTS OF SCHISM.—Bishop Soule says that there has been a decrease of 45,435 members in the northern section of the methodist church in the past year, and increase of 9,703 in the southern section, while the total increase of the preceding year was 155,000. He ascribes it to the contention and strifes that have rent the church.

Delicace.—A queen of Spain was presented with several pairs of fine stockings. Said the minister, white with rags, "Senor, the etiquette of the Court of Spain is not aware that her Majesty can have any use for such things."

Capt. Manby has presented to his Royal Highness Prince Albert a geranium, raised from a cutting of one that was in Nelson's cabin, on board the "Elephant," at the battle of Copenhagen.
