

ble that this valuable property should be restored, and it has been suggested that advertisements in the daily papers might be productive of success.

A Register has been opened for the entry of donations to the Museum and Library, and at much trouble it has been drawn up from the foundation of the Society, in 1827, to the present time; and gives as complete an enumeration of the articles presented, with the names and residence of their donors, as the records of the Society permit.

In conclusion, it is proposed that Members, both Ordinary and Corresponding, be solicited and encouraged to make personal donations to both Museum and Library.
