FOR THE DRUG CLERKS

Elliott Hotel, City, June 23.
To the Editor of the Times:
Sir—Some years ago the grocers started a movement to have all their stores to close early each night except Saturday. After a good deal of good honest work on the part of the smart ones, they accomplished their ends and now it is an established fact and no one apparently wants to go back to the dark ages. Following the grocers the drug clerks and other leaders in trade started for the Saturday half holiday, but many firms opposed it, yet after a while the leading firms adopted the idea and gave their men a half holiday for the summer months and it must have been a lasting pleasure to all concerned, for we don't hear anything about lost trade or money, and all concerned seem to be satisfied with the new methods. The reason the merchants gave the half holiday to their men was, I think, they remembered the days when they were clerks themselves and remembered their longings to be out on the river.

Now along come the drug clerks asking for shorter hours, and if there is a more deserving class of workers than the drug clerks I have not discovered them. They are called to work long hours and there is no need of it whatever. The drug clerks (that they can give their men shorter hours and never lose one cent trade.) I hope that the leading drug proprietors will see their way clear to give their men, speedily, shorter hours. At least that is the wish of yours respectfully.

A. T. B. HOWARD.

PROHIBITION ASSURED

Washington, June 24.—The administration food control bill, giving the president broad authority to control the distribution of food, feed and fuel for war purposes, and appropriating $125,000,000 for its enforcement and administration, was passed by the house late last night after far-reaching prohibition provisions had been written into it.

The prohibition provisions adopted would prohibit the use of foodstuffs for the manufacture of alcoholic beverages, and would give the president authority to take over, for war purposes, all liquor now on hand.
