WAS STABBED TO DEATH.

Six Witnesses Held in New York Murder Case.

New York, Jan. 8.—Three girls and three men were held by the police in an effort to obtain further details of the stabbing to death of Sylvester Doran, twenty-four years old, an iron worker, of 244 East Thirty-fifth street, in front of 227 East Ninety-sixth street. One of the men, Joseph Riley, twenty-five years old, was detained as a material witness. As a result of information given the police by Riley, the detectives are scouring the upper east side and the Bronx in search of two men believed to be implicated in the killing of Doran. According to the story alleged to have been told by Riley, some of the guests left the party and went south on Second avenue to Ninety-sixth street, between Second and Third avenues, when the murder occurred.

Witnesses say the two men for whom the police are searching ran into a building at 227 East 96th street after the murder, and escaped over the roofs of the houses nearby.

HAD A BAD FRIGHT.

Man on a Spree Thought He Drank Wood Alcohol.

New York, Jan. 8.—A man who said he was Edward "Snapper" Garrison, world famous jockey and whose bank account once was in seven figures, originator of the term "garrison finish," staggered into the Clymer street police station, in Brooklyn, with his hands over his eyes.

"For God's sake get a doctor, I've been drinking wood alcohol and I'm blind," begged the man, his tattered clothing almost falling from his shivering form. Lieut. James Lonergan immediately sent to Williamsburg hospital for a surgeon, who found that the Garrison, although he had been drinking heavily, had not been partaking of wood alcohol whiskey. He had fallen asleep on the street, it was learned, and, tears coming to his eyes, had frozen.

The man recovered and was allowed to leave. Investigation disclosed that he was not "Snapper" Garrison, who has gone to New Orleans to take charge of a big racing stable.

THE "CUSTOM OF KISSING" FAILS TO SAVE HER.

London, Jan. 8.—In disposing of a divorce action from Stornoway in the court of session, Edinburgh, Lord Sands commented on the practice of kissing among church people attending communion in the Highlands. It had been alleged by the respondent in the case that she had been kissed by the co-respondent as a religious custom.

Lord Sands said the existence of such a custom seemed somewhat startling, but it was explained by the fact that it had been the practice for only a mere handful of the adherents of the church to participate in communion, although the communion season was a far more solemn occasion in the Highlands than in the Lowlands. It might be all very well for elderly saints to greet one another with a chaste Oriental religious salute, but it was a different matter when it came to young married women being promiscuously kissed by casual male acquaintances who happened to be fellow communicants. The present money custom was viewed with disapproval by many, but still to a certain extent the custom persisted.

His Lordship held, however, that the kissing in the case in question had exceeded religious custom, and he granted a decree of divorce.

SPENDING CRAZE CAUSE OF CRIME

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 8.—In the opinion of Dr. J. W. Inghes, Detroit's Police Commissioner, and a keen student of sociological questions, the present money spending craze is responsible for the epidemic of crime that has infected younger men of the city during the last few weeks.

"The whole country is not only money mad," said Dr. Inghes today, "it's money spending mad." Every man is doing it. Money is being spent like water and the more expensive things are in greatest demand."

The last few months have seen crimes perpetrated by younger men, boys of eleven and twelve years of age breaking into stores, while youths of eighteen or nineteen have been robbing banks or killing men.

CANADIAN OFFICERS REMEMBER KINDNESS.

Ottawa, Jan. 8.—(By Canadian Press Limited)—Officers who served overseas in England, France or Belgium are being given an opportunity to subscribe to a fund which is being raised to honor the object of making a presentation to the Royal Automobile Club of London, England. The presentation is to be made in recognition of the automobile club's kindness in placing its clubhouse and facilities at the disposal of the Royal Club for officers beyond the seas. General Sir Arthur Currie, to whom the subscriptions are made payable, is interesting himself in the matter and a circular has been sent out to the various military districts.

SPENDS FOUR TONGUES. HELD AS ILLITERATE.

New York, Jan. 8.—The linguistic accomplishments of Jose Hadal, Syrian, who has been for the last ten years a merchant in Merida and Havana, did not help to get him into America when he arrived by the Ward liner Mexico from Havana.

Although speaking Spanish, French, Syrian and English, he can write nothing in any of these languages, and he was held by the immigration officials under the illiteracy test law. He said that he had come here solely to buy clothing for his Havana store, and it is not unlikely that he may be permitted to do so under escort of an inspector or by giving bond.

SUGAR $6 A POUND.

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—When it comes to a question of the high cost of living, Vienna has every place beaten, according to H. B. Thomson of the Canadian Trade Commission, who is home after several months overseas.

Mr. Thomson emphasized his point by some luminous figures. Money is only one twenty-fifth of its pre-war value. A pound of flour costs $5, sugar $6, meat $10, apples $2, one egg $1.70, a hat $50, a pair of boots $125, and everything else proportionately. Salaries have gone up, but prices are twenty to forty times higher than before the war. Many of the lower and middle classes and thousands of children are dying of hunger, cold and exposure. England has enough for herself, but her domestic production of wheat is down 25 per cent.

The most practical way in which the unfortunate districts of Central Europe can be helped out, Mr. Thomson says, is by opening the way for trade and resuming normal relations.
