Ready to Meet Wilde.

New Orleans, April 1.—Pete Herman, American bantamweight champion, prior to his departure tonight from New Orleans on a boxing tour, announced his willingness to meet Jimmie Wilde, British flyweight champion, for the championship of the world.

An Important Omission.

Albany, N. Y., April 1.—The Gibbs boxing bill was on the order of final passage in the senate today when the attention of the introducer was called to the fact that no appropriation to pay for the expenses of the proposed boxing commission and his deputies or for the enforcement of laws generally as contained in the measure. Senator Gibbs accordingly announced that he will submit amendments to provide funds. If enacted, the bill would be effective on July 1.

News of Boxers.

The less fortunate exponents of boxing and wrestling will in future be provided with the necessities of life through the medium of a benevolent and if success attends the plans of Jack Curley, wrestling promoter, Curley has started a campaign to create a fund. The money would be expended for emergencies, such as sickness, expenses, temporarily down and out characters, funeral bills, and financial provision for widows and children. Charles J. Harvey, manager of Ted (Kid) Lewis, former welterweight champion, is confident Lewis will regain his crown when the English boxer is restored to health. Friends of Wilde are prepared to back him for $100,000. Wilde will issue a challenge to Moore and Herman under these conditions.

New York, March 31.—Ted Lewis, who recently was stopped by Jack Britton in London, has gone to St. Vincent's hospital for treatment. For several months past the boxer has been suffering from jaundice and as his condition was owing worse instead of improving, he turned to the advice of his physician and agreed to a course of treatment. The boxer's complexion is decidedly yellow, and he lacks strength. Lewis attributes an unexpected defeat by Britton to his poor health.

SEES SOMETHING OF POLITICS IN THIS

Denial of Story That Japanese Are Acquiring Land in Lower California
Mexico City, April 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Salvador Gomez, chief of the staff of the department of agriculture and development last night, officially denied reports that Japanese subjects have bought lands in Lower California.

Baron Otorio, Japanese minister to Mexico, issued the following statement: "A temper in a tea pot has been created, and I think the importance the American press has given this question is due to some political manoeuvre, caused by the nearness of the next presidential campaign. It may be declared that there are no concessions in Lower California that favor the interests of my country. Only near the town of Mexcala exists a small Japanese agricultural colony that cultivates rice, but this is absolutely lacking in importance."

"The paying enterprise that can be made in that part of Mexico is for the development of mineral deposits, and this is beyond the modest resources of the only Japanese colony located in that region. I am sure that if the department of state has asked its embassy here for information, the embassy must declare that there are no concessions in Lower California favoring Japanese interests."

BOLSHEVIK ATTACKS ON ALLIES FAIL

Archangel, April 2.—(By the Associated Press)—Bolshevik forces again attacked the Allied positions along the railway near Odozerskaya and also made an assault against the lines east of Bulshoia Ozerka on Monday, but at both places were repulsed.

The enemy is apparently striving to take Odozerskaya before the thaw, which is rapidly approaching, makes the roads impassable and compels him to withdraw from Bulshoia Ozerka, which is a long way from the Bolshevik base, with which it is connected only by a winter road which is virtually useless in the spring.

Along the Dvina and Vega fronts the situation is reported unchanged.

DAYLIGHT SAVING OBJECTIONS

(From the Montreal Gazette.)
Farmers contend that they cannot commence work until dew is off the grass.

Answer—This, of course, can only refer to the hay season, when there is moving to be done in the early morning. At most there are not more than twelve to fifteen days in the whole season when dew is being cut. The extra hour daylight in the evening permits hay to be put away in barn that night, which otherwise would be left in the field overnight, exposed to bad weather.

That the hired help will knock off at the new time.

Answer—Farm help will commence and stop work by the clock, the same as they eat their meals at the blowing daylight saving is in effect do not necessitate the farmer rising before the sun able to adjust themselves to the hours of daylight in winter months. Daylight have breakfast at the same hour by the saying can, if the farmer is to it, he Nature has provided a sufficient number of hours of darkness to give rest to both of the cities and towns. The putting forward towns will not close an hour is not going to usual—in fact, they will probably keep open longer owing to the daylight being more suitable for shopping than artificial light. The farmer and his help will therefore be able to do their shopping in daylight, after working hours.

That the children won't go to sleep until sunset and then cannot rise for father's breakfast, necessitating two breakfasts for wife to cook.

That milkmen have to milk too early in order to get milk into the cities.

Answer—The majority of farmers who ship by train do not milk in the early morning for shipment that day. The milk that comes to the dealers of the cities on the morning trains is of the previous afternoon's or evening's milking. These farmers who take their milk to the creameries or cheese factories would be in no way affected by the putting forward of the clocks. If daylight saving is not put into effect in Canada, the Canadian railways will be obliged to change their schedules so as to avoid delaying trains at the border for an hour, and if this is done the inconvenience to a large number of farmers will be much greater than under the daylight saving law.
