The selection of a team thoroughly representative in every department of the game to do battle for Toronto at the two-day game with the Australians at Rosedale on June 11 and 12 is a matter which has engaged the lively attention of the committee of management during the last seven days. With the great number of active cricketers in Toronto, many of whom can be classed as first rate players, the task has proved no easy one, but it is believed that sixteen names are under consideration from whom the eleven will be ultimately chosen.
