

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1925

ILLUSTRATED ANGLES ON PEOPLE AND EVENTS IN WORLD NEWS

COUNT SALM TO CHANGE FLAG

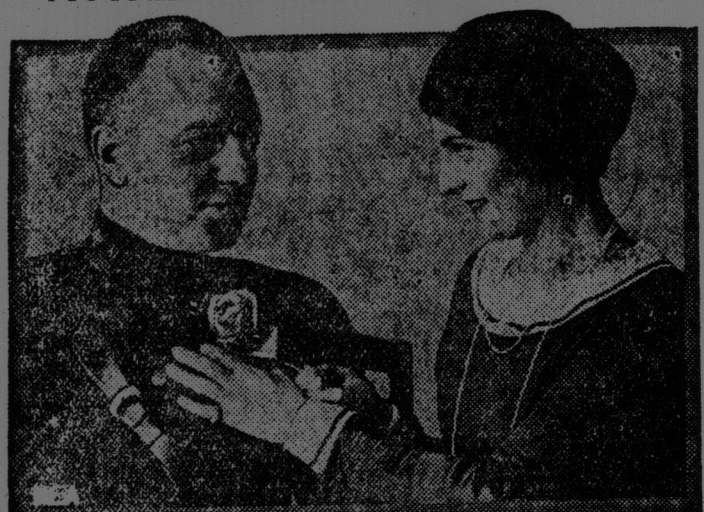

It is reported from abroad that Count Ludwig Salm, the husband of Millicent Rogers, New York heiress, is contemplating his adoption by a Hungarian named Kovacs. This, it is suggested, is in order to block any move the Rogers may make to have the count's marriage with their daughter annulled in the New York courts. The count had obtained a divorce in Hungary prior to his marriage to Miss Rogers, but inasmuch as the Hungarian laws provide that only citizens of that country may be divorced there, and as a result of the war, the count ranks as an Austrian, it would be easy to have the marriage annulled on the grounds that Salm's divorce was invalid. By becoming a Hungarian citizen, Salm hopes to block any such move. Count Salm is shown refereeing a tennis match at Cannes, where he is now.

HUMAN MODELS FOR ADS

An enterprising Berlin gift shop has adopted the novel scheme of using large models with human figures as ornamentation in advertising its silverware, combs and other articles. Photo shows one of the models with its human figures used in advertising a silver bowl.

ACTRESS ENTERTAINS AVIATOR

Priscilla Dean, movie actress, entertained Lieutenant Leslie Arnold, world flyer, when both were together on a speaking tour at Milwaukee. Miss Dean's husband, Wheeler Oakman, makes his home in New York. Arnold is a bachelor. "We're just friends," says Miss Dean of Arnold.

HOUSE SHOOTS THE CHUTES

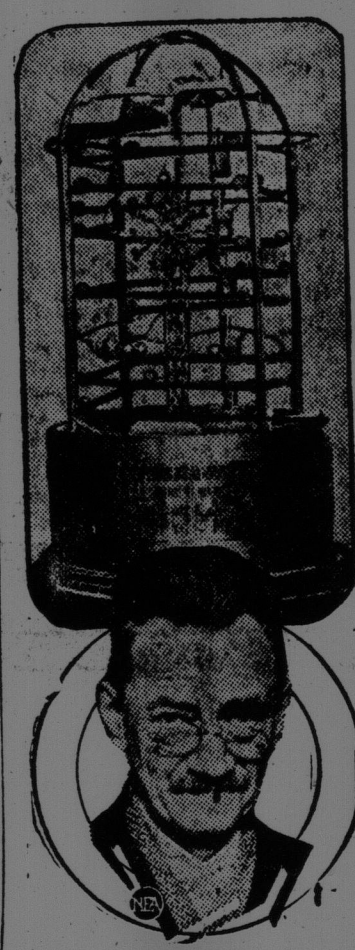

Rains which flooded Marin county, Calif., swept down Mill Valley and hurled this house with its three occupants, down the mountain side. The occupants, a mother and two children, were rescued by the sheriff.

A REAL THRILL

Fancy diver! Miss Carver and her horse each enjoy this simple plunge to the tank 50 feet below. The horse was trained by the young woman's father.

SOME CLOCK

Birdcage? Not on your tinfoy. It is a clock, invented and built by the veteran New York watchmaker, Fred W. Jensen, shown below. Its motive impulse is a series of metal balls which roll down the spiral track and are carried in an elevator to the top again. It keeps perfect time.

NEW DISGUISE

Presenting Umpire Bill Klem of the National League, wearing a complete disguise. The famous arbitrator has "struck out" for himself. From now on he says baseball is merely a sideline. His business is real estate, president of the Klem Realty Company, place of business, Miami, Fla. National League players take notice. Pipe the cane.

WATCHING DEBUT OF DREAM SELF

Yesterday, today and tomorrow in the life of Maxime Elliott. Left, the beautiful star in her own youth; center, Miss Elliott today; right, Jean Robertson, Miss Elliott's actress niece, upon whom her hopes are centered.

PICTURES ON THE BUDLONG CASE

The latest photo of Mrs. Jessie Budlong (right), New York society woman who locked herself in her husband's apartment, where she spent six days in a state of siege, going without food, and communicating with the outside world by means of messages attached to shirts of her husband. Lower left shows reporters trying to communicate with Mrs. Budlong by means of notes dangled on a string from the roof of the apartment, while in the upper left reporters are shown reading one of the messages that has just been removed from a shirt.

PHOTO OF RUSS-JAPANESE TREATY AGREEMENT

This photograph of the signing of the treaty renewing diplomatic relations between Russia and Japan was taken at 2 a. m. in the private bedroom of Minister Yoshizawa of Japan, at Peking, China. Ambassador Karakhan of Russia (right) was in formal dress, but Minister Doshozawa wore a kimono and was supported by pillows, due to a painful accident he suffered a short time before while skating.

NEWEST PLANES

They are amphibian and can land on or take off from either land or water, the landing wheels and under-carriage being raised and packed into the pontoon, or brought from the pontoon into landing position, in a few seconds, at the will of the pilot while in flight. They are known as the Leaning planes.

FANS AT SOCIETY WEDDING

Thousands of radio fans attended a wedding of one of Montreal's elite, through broadcasting station WHN at New York. It happened when Mrs. Laure Portway, wealthy Montreal society woman, was married to William J. Stuart, radio welfare worker. Rev. William Darlington of the Church of Heavenly Rest is shown uniting the pair before the microphone.

WHERE DID THEY COME FROM?

Empty! That is the whole trouble. But the two young women are remaining cheerful as they perch upon the mountain of alcoholic bottles in the warehouse of a New York dealer.

THE CLOTHES DID IT

Netta Stiles waited 75 years for the chance to be a regular film flapper, and now she's in Hollywood telling all the folks, "sure, it's all in the clothes, and acting young."

A STORY WITHOUT WORDS

