

FOOT LOCK

MIRAMICHI ADVANCE, CHATHAM, NEW BRUNSWICK, MARCH 4, 1880.

Insolvent Repeal Bill to a Committee of the Whole, with instructions to allow the provisions of the act for winding up insolvent banks and insurance companies to remain in force. Carried.

Mr. Burpee, of St. John, inquired whether Mr. Colby had considered the suggestion to name a day for the repeal to take effect.

Mr. Colby said he saw no reason to do so. Mr. Burpee said the case had before made out in reference to New Brunswick was much stronger now since it was known the Legislature was prorogued.

Mr. Hulton said other parts of the act were equally well worth saving. The bill was reported as amended. The House then took recess.

After recess, several private bills were read a second time.

Mr. Casey informed the House that, by an agreement with the Premier, the Hoper matter would be considered next Wednesday.

Mr. Blake moved to exempt the insolvent trading companies clause of the Insolvent Act from the repeal.

Mr. Blake moved to amend the bill so that it would not be amended till the close of the session. On motion of Sir John, the question was postponed and the third reading fixed for the first day on Wednesday next.

Some discussion arose on a motion of Sir Richard Cartwright's to amend an order about repairs.

Sir John opposed it and pointedly said that Cartwright was speaking for the House. He had his speech on the National Policy ready, and was in a hurry to deliver it in stead of attending to it.

Sir Richard Cartwright said there is no Government business.

Sir John said the House has been busier than ever before on the first part of the session.

Mr. Mackenzie—Yes. With private measures. The oldest members of the House never witnessed such an exhibition as the Government were making, with none of the measures prominent in the Speech yet ready.

Mr. Girouard moved the second reading of the bill to legalize marriage with a deceased wife's sister. He said in England a similar measure had eight times passed in the Commons and was objected to by the Lords. Under the Ontario laws such marriages could be made during the lifetime of the parties, and in British Columbia after death. New South Wales, the Cape of Good Hope and New Zealand had legalized such marriages.

Mr. Cameron, of Victoria, seconded the motion. He read from the authorities in Hebrew literature to show that the Church of England prohibition was founded upon a misinterpretation of scripture. Twenty-six English bishops now admitted this; if there was no scriptural or social objection, all legal disabilities should be removed.

Mr. Thompson (Halifax) rose with a Bible in his hand, and read verses 10 and 11 of the 22nd chapter, 21st verse of Leviticus and moved the six months trial, and said of "read."

Mr. Mills explained the Jewish law of consanguinity, while Sir John stated the Bible. Then half a dozen members got up and looked for the text.

Mr. Abbott said the question might as well be left to the conscience and good taste of those interested.

Mr. Blake concurred with the view that Scriptural argument against such marriages was not well founded. He raised the constitutional point that the introduction of marriage was under local jurisdiction, and hence disapproval of the bill respecting church dispensations was ultra vires, and that Parliament could only declare such marriage legal or not.

Mr. Anglin followed, stating that the Catholic Church regarded such marriages as highly objectionable, disapproval being only granted for them by the Pope himself. He opposed the bill.

On motion of Mr. Houlie, the debate was adjourned.

The House adjourned at 10.30.

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

The Bathurst Amateur Dramatic Club are to give a performance in aid of the Irish relief fund at the Court House.

FRANCOIS—Isaac Harris, Esq., left England for home on 28th Feb., and may, therefore, be expected here next week.

Hon. R. Hutchison left for Ottawa on Monday evening last.

INDIANITY BRIDGE.—The repairing of Indianity Brook Bridge is to be sold at auction on Wednesday 10th inst. by special commissioner George Brown, at whose residence plan and specification may be seen.

A MASSENOCTAL is to be held in Newcastle on Tuesday 30th inst., under the auspices of Northumberland Lodge. Tickets are placed at $1.50. The proceeds are to go towards paying off the debt on the Masonic Hall.

RAY DES VENTS BRIDGE.—Tenders for the building of the proposed new bridge over the mouth of Bay des Vents river are to be received at Fredericton until 9th inst. Specifications are to be seen at the office of Donald MacLachlan, Esq., Chatham, and at the office of the Board of Works, Fredericton.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY is to be celebrated in Newcastle by a Musical and Dramatic entertainment, which is to be given by the pupils of St. Mary's Academy. The programme is a well selected one, and the amateurs have made such preparations as will ensure them a large audience.

PARWELL CONCERT.—Mr. Youmans gives his Farewell Concert on next Friday evening. Mr. Youmans' entertainments never go puffing, as the public have had sufficient proof of his ability to please. We understand that the programme is more interesting even than the former one and those who are fortunate enough to secure a good seat, will not be disappointed.

CURLING.—Cur curlers have all returned home from the advance. It is believed that they will give a much better account of themselves when they next meet their late St. John opponents. Last week the figures representing the result in St. John were mentioned in the advance.

"Well," rejoined the other, "it will be a simple matter to get up." "I have a plan," said the other, "I will lay a ghost or Phantom, or whatever you call it, on street's Hill."

"Neither have you, and if you were to meet it to-night you'd be the first to run."

"Boys," rejoined the Chatham man, "I let you five dollars, if any of you will come up, that if you meet the Phantom, I'll give you five dollars."

"Done!" cried the other, "jolly good fellows sitting around it was understood that if the Phantom appeared it would cost the Chatham man $5 if he failed to seize it."

An hour later the jury proceeded up street's Hill a starting figure approached from the vicinity of the Methodist Church, where it had evidently been concealed. It was enveloped in female apparel, was about eight feet high and had a head resembling that of a ram. A stamptoe place, those who appear least frightened, the latter advanced, and the Chatham friend to run away also.

He stood his ground, however, and exclaiming, "excuse-gelbas-here-for my five-dollar bet," he rushed forward, and grasped with the horns, striking sharp. A lively tussle ensued, in which the Phantom finally floored his man and batted him most unmercifully. Though bruised considerably, the latter recovered, and the dress party left his ghostly antagonist. A lively tussle ensued, in which the Phantom finally floored his man and batted him most unmercifully. Though bruised considerably, the latter recovered, and the dress party left his ghostly antagonist.

The encounter has settled the Phantom and those other fellows are now expected to appear in Chatham and pay over their $5.

A Singular Bridge Sale.—On Tuesday last a number of residents of the County proceeded to the Indianity Creek for the purpose of attending the sale of the rebuilding of the bridge there, which had been advertised by Mr. Jas. Gagnon, Supervisor. A large number of citizens were present, and the sale was attended with interest.

Whatver may be the local temper upon the charity of our people, there should be a united effort on the part of citizens of all classes to make the Miramichi a navigable river. Much attention is being paid to aid in the good work and to stimulate their respective charges to this pressing call upon their benevolence.

NOTICE.—In pursuance of the foregoing Requisition, I hereby give notice that a meeting of the inhabitants of this County will be held at the Court House in Newcastle, on Monday the 9th inst. at 2 o'clock.

Whatver may be the local temper upon the charity of our people, there should be a united effort on the part of citizens of all classes to make the Miramichi a navigable river. Much attention is being paid to aid in the good work and to stimulate their respective charges to this pressing call upon their benevolence.

NOTICE.—In pursuance of the foregoing Requisition, I hereby give notice that a meeting of the inhabitants of this County will be held at the Court House in Newcastle, on Monday the 9th inst. at 2 o'clock.

Whatver may be the local temper upon the charity of our people, there should be a united effort on the part of citizens of all classes to make the Miramichi a navigable river. Much attention is being paid to aid in the good work and to stimulate their respective charges to this pressing call upon their benevolence.

NOTICE.—In pursuance of the foregoing Requisition, I hereby give notice that a meeting of the inhabitants of this County will be held at the Court House in Newcastle, on Monday the 9th inst. at 2 o'clock.

Whatver may be the local temper upon the charity of our people, there should be a united effort on the part of citizens of all classes to make the Miramichi a navigable river. Much attention is being paid to aid in the good work and to stimulate their respective charges to this pressing call upon their benevolence.

The Newcastle "Phantom"

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

It is understood that the "Newcastle Phantom" was not, the ghost of a friend or ethereal being as its biographers had led some of its readers to believe, and also that the credit of having "laid the ghost" belongs to gentlemen from Chatham, who one night last week, when in Newcastle seeing a very dark friend and political "father" off on a northward-bound train, met the "Phantom" on the train.

The Distress in Ireland.

A MEETING CALLED FOR SATURDAY NEXT. The continued distress in Ireland, consequent upon the failure of last year's crops, has led to efforts for relief of the destitute people throughout the civilized world.

The citizens of St. John have moved in the matter and are doing good work, while other places are also contributing liberally as the straitened circumstances of the country will permit.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

The Mayor of St. John, through County Warden Burchell, has applied to the operation of Northumberland in the relief movement, and a request signed by some of our leading citizens has been presented to the High Sheriff, asking that the relief fund for the Irish sufferers, which is now being raised in the County, be applied to the relief of the destitute people in Ireland.

Bathurst Notes.

BATHURST 1st March, 1880. Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

Who was the BELLIE?—Your correspondent regrets that his statement as to who was the belle of the Wilbur House Quilting Society, which was given in the issue of the 27th inst., was not correct.

New Advertisements.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY. MUSICAL & DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT. THE PUPILS OF St. Mary's Academy, Newcastle.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, THE 17TH INST. Doors open at half past 7 p.m. Tickets 50c. Reserved seats 50c. Children 15c. To be had at the stores of Messrs. H. W. J. O'Brien, Dr. Storey and S. Fitzgerald, Chatham; J. D. H. Storey, Newcastle; and at the door on entrance.

VALUABLE MILL PROPERTY FOR SALE. The subscriber offers for sale his real estate situated in the Parish of St. John, consisting of two 100 acre lots, on which is erected a saw-mill, and a mill race, on which is erected a saw-mill with Shingle Factory, Forge and Tails.

There are also two houses and a good farm on the premises. The purchase money may remain on mortgage for two years at 5 per cent. Apply to J. C. VAUGHAN, Mill Cove, Chatham, 28th Feb. 1880.

TO LET. The house and store on South side of Water Street, opposite the Golden Ball, lately occupied by Mr. Martin Lyons. Apply to J. C. VAUGHAN, Mill Cove, Chatham, 28th Feb. 1880.

BEST REFINED IRON. Lowmoor, Swede, Londonbury common Bar Iron and Pig Iron.

CAST STEEL. Thos. Firth and Sons' Extra Axle, Tool and Drill Steel.

Spring, Sleigh Shoe & Tire Steel. ALSO—ROUND MACHINE STEEL. Manufacture of brass & JACOBSON.

Tinplates, CHARCOAL, Sheet Iron, and COKE.

Black and Galvanized. A special lot of Galvanized Sheet Iron—6 ft x 24 in. 20 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 22 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 24 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 26 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 28 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 30 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 32 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 34 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 36 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 38 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 40 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 42 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 44 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 46 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 48 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 50 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 52 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 54 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 56 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 58 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 60 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 62 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 64 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 66 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 68 gauge. 6 ft x 24 in. 70 gauge. 6 ft x 24