

christian duty, and is well received in it.
of the employment situation, priestical, we hope this alli-ment and contract.

scribes and of transforming truths among the children of a generation of ours

INDEPENDENCE.

in many respects a not only St. John's but also an independent projecting himself before the world.

RESCUE.

has been an independent, but has appeared to be a well known man.

Yours, &c.,

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC. OF INTEREST TO ALL.

Shars's, Celebrated Family Medicines and Preparations.

"The Dead Slave" by Thomas de Quincey, who and others will be the principles you agree upon—My word is it, as it will be in a pretty fix for them, the question is as in truth, as about my last, they are themselves also upon every recognized platform on which governments are formed.

Now absurd, then, it is of men of sense and reflection—and to such only do I address myself—to support persons with whom every principle, however disengaged, ever avowed, they are able to do two highly improbable thing, viz., first, successfully oppose Mr. Wilmet, and then overturn the present Government.

Yours, &c.,

ROGATOR.

(FOR THE CHRONICLE.)

The TEMPERANCE TELEGRAPH.—The upcoming number of this journal has become proprietor. Even the all important question of Temperance, it has the faculty of rendering dry and sober, and all intelligent readers, who have written on the subject, are fully satisfied, that it is the most likely to serve as a means of spreading the principles of temperance throughout the country, and the fact of the electors still advancing the interests of their Party, is a strong argument in favor of its success.

It is the Temperance Committee that has done the most to combat the evil of Intemperance in the Province, and the editor of "Temperance," that he was believed to be innocent of wrong, and really more in a favorable position. But, it is too characteristic of the author of "Temperance" to believe that he is serving the cause of Temperance. He is a Protectionist, and most of his opinions are not only erroneous, but becoming so, as they are not only destructive of temperance, but also of any policy that can raise the interest of state more effectively than that of itself. This ought particularly to our Farmers, and their late colleagues, in them put forth by them in the face of it, accused party—this means the whole population, and those who have pledged to oppose us, and to do us harm.

It is the author of "Temperance" who has been most successful in the efforts of his party to overturn the Government.

A TEMPERANCE MAN.

(FOR THE CHRONICLE.)

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that Gray was now advertising one carried out by the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint
John, that he remained there until 1830, and was then
employed by Messrs. Wilmet and Gray, and that
Gray was now advertising one carried out by
the Government, I see it is my duty to state to the public
that, though of Mr. Ritchie's honesty, and
integrity, and straightforwardness, there is no
doubt, but that he did make the above statement.

J. MOORE.

Mr. EATON.—Sir—I understand that Mr. Ritchie distinctly
denied at the hearings, of having resided in Saint John, that he remained there until 1830,