Capt. Larsen Only One of 12 Who Did Not Give Up Niagara Contest

K. P. LARSEN AND HIS LAUNCH.

Buffalo, Sept. 20.—On Saturday, Sept. 17, Klaus P. Larsen, forty-one, braved the Niagara rapids in his launch built especially to navigate the bit of water between the falls and Lewiston, N. Y., for the prize of $1,000 offered by a magazine.

Originally 12 intrepid navigators entered the competition, but Larsen was the only one whose feet didn't become chilly. When the 11 contracted chilblains the prize was withdrawn for one year, but Larsen declared his intention to navigate the rapids anyway. Larsen's launch is 18 feet over all, full cabined, with five feet beam and half as much draught. When in the rapids Larsen occupied a cockpit, just large enough to admit his body.

JOHNSON AND LANGFORD AGREE TO GET TOGETHER

Boston, Mass., Sept. 20.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, and Sam Langford, colored, of Nova Scotia, who would wrest the champion's honors from him, met in the ring at the armory athletic association tonight, for two rounds—one of verbal recrimination, and the other of apparent reconciliation. In the first round Langford accused Johnson of being afraid to meet him when he posted a $10,000 forfeit for a fight and offered to meet the champion at any time, for any sum of money and in any place, "even in the cellar." Johnson came back with a denial that Langford had placed any forfeit, and shaking a large roll of bills, offered to bet $1000 to $10 that no forfeit was ever placed. He said he was willing to fight Langford and would meet him tomorrow morning in a local newspaper office to arrange for a fight. The second round was devoted to shaking hands, the two colored fighters being urged to "get together," with the result that Johnson offered his hand first and the Nova Scotian gripped it, while the 2000 fans in the circle, cheered them both.

Three star bouts were on the programme for the night. Jimmy Walsh, of Boston had little difficulty in defeating Young Britt, of Baltimore in ten rounds. Dave Deshler, of Cambridge and Willie Lucas, of Philadelphia, went ten rounds to a draw while Jumbo Wells, of Australia knocked out Billy Rolfe, of Cambridge, in the second round of a scheduled ten round bout.

ST. YVES HAD NARROW ESCAPE IN CYCLE RACE

Passaic, N. J., Sept. 20.—Henry St. Yves, the Marathon runner, narrowly escaped death in his first professional motor cycle race at the Clifton stadium. His machine collapsed when he was riding 55 miles an hour, and dragged him the length of the grand stand. He was picked up for dead, but it turned out that he was only stunned and scratched.

SPORTS BUT NO ICE PALACE FOR MONTREAL

Montreal, Que., Sept. 20.—Montreal is to have a carnival this winter, but it will be a carnival in which all features which might hurt the reputation of Canada will be eliminated. Such was the decision arrived at by a number of prominent merchants and sporting men, who held a meeting to discuss the matter today. There will be a week of winter sports of all kinds, but there will be no ice palace.

At your meals, and at bedtime, drink this sparkling agreeable brew. Your digestion will improve. Your slumber will better refresh you. Every drop gratifies.

NEW RECORD FOR 4-YEAR-OLDS

Joan Won from Dudie Archdale at Columbus in 2.06 1-2
--Hallworthy Loses Columbus Stake.

Columbus, Ohio, Sept. 20.—Joan, four years old, owned by David Shaw, of Cleveland, and driven by H. McDevitt, today became a world's champion race trotter for fillies of her age, when she defeated Dudie Archdale, in a gruelling race for the Haster-Columbus stakes, the last $10,000 prize that the grand circuit has to offer this year. Both heats were done in 2.06 1-4, time never before made by a trotter of Joan's class.

Dudie Archdale, was the original favorite at $100 to $75. She tried trailing Joan in the first heat, but was stalled off at the finish, the final quarter being trotted in 29 1-4 seconds. In the second heat, Dudie Archdale was sent away in front and led for the greater part of the miles, but Joan had speed enough in reserve to win. The pace set by Dudie Archdale in the last heat, was faster than in the second. It took Joan and she was not able to brush it out successfully. Joan won $4,167 and Dudie Archdale $3,333. Hallworthy broke in the first two heats of the Columbus stake and the race went to Startle. Independence Boy easily won the 2:09 pace.

STANDING OF THE PITCHERS

Four of Connie Mack's Twirlers
in Group of Leaders--Cubs
Have Same Number in National League.

Connie Mack's pitchers have won the pennant for him, that much is sure. Statistics show that two of his men stand at the top of the American league and that two others, four in all, are in the group of ten leading the league.

The standing for the two leagues follow:

10 Leading American Pitchers.

OLDEST WOMAN IN MALDEN DIED TODAY

Malden, Mass., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Sarah A. Eastman, the oldest woman in Malden, being in her 96th year, died today. She was a native of Kings-ton, N.H., and a great grand daughter of Joseph Bartlett, the first governor of New Hampshire and a signer of the declaration of the independence.

JOHNSON STAR ATTRACTION AT BARBECUE

Colored Champion Arrives Unexpectedly at Vermont State Fair in Time to Taste the Ox--Two Horse Races.

White River Junction, Vt., Sept. 20.—A barbecue, at which every slice from a two thousand pound ox, was eagerly devoured, and the presence of Jack Johnson, the champion heavyweight pugilist, with Mrs. Johnson, were the star attractions at the opening of the fourth annual Vermont state fair here today.

The presence of the colored champion was not on the official programme but the fighter, passing through on an automobile trip from Montpelier to Boston, heard of the barbecue, and stopped over long enough to participate in the feast. The exhibit of 150 prize Morgan horses at the fair is the best ever shown in the country. It is claimed. Tomorrow will be Governor's day.

There were two cards on the race programme today, the Montana taking the 2:24 trot in straight heats, while Dunholm managed to pull out in the trot for three year olds, after starting off with second place in the first heat.

PRINCETON AND YALE LEFT ON GOLF FINALS

Manchester, Mass., Sept. 20.—Yale and Princeton will meet in the finals at the Essex Country Club links tomorrow for the intercollegiate golf tea championship, as a result of their victories over Harvard and Dartmouth respectively today.

Yale defeated Harvard 6 to 1, taking all but one of the singles in the morning and winning all three four somes in the afternoon, while Princeton, by taking all the afternoon foursomes, beat Dartmouth 6 to 3.

F. W. Sargent was the only Harvard man to win during the day, defeating H. G. Legg 1 up in 19 holes in the morning. All the scoring was rather high, Mosser and Waldo of Yale, had one of the best scores of the afternoon, foursomes with two 38's for a 76.

COAST DEFENCE OF HOLLAND

Second Chamber to Consider Measure for Expenditure of 40,000,000 Florins--Arbitration Case on Sept. 28.

The Hague, Sept. 20.—A bill for the expenditure of forty million florins on coast defence has been introduced into the Second Chamber of the States General. This expenditure will include the erection of two forts, the building of torpedo boats and the manufacture of heavy guns. It is not expected that the bill will be considered before the new year, but already the various sections of the Liberal party—that is to say, the Liberals, the Radicals and the Socialists, are severely criticising through their papers what they term the needless outlay proposed.

On Sept. 28 the arbitration case between the United States of America and Venezuela, re the Orinoco Steamship Company claim, will come before the court. The arbitrators for the United States will be W. C. Dennis, Esq., Venezuelan agent, and Dr. Grisanti, while for Venezuela there will appear Messrs. Lammach, Gonzalo Quesada and Beernast.

The opening of the states general will take place in the famous Hall of the Knights by the Queen at 7 o'clock tomorrow.

"BIG CHIEF" BENDER.

"Big Chief" Bender of the Athletics is counted upon to win his game, or possibly his games, when the Quakers meet the Cubs in the post-season series for the big money. Bender is not being worked often by Mack, who, with the pennant in his pocket, is taking no chances with a valuable asset. Bender is not a powerful man, and cannot stand the strain of continuous pitching, as Coombs and Morgan have. Whenever he is trotted out, however, the odds lengthen on the Athletics. Bender is the only Athletic pitcher to win his game against the Giants in the post-season series of 1905, and he is a better man today than when he broke the string of shutouts McGraw's tribe was hanging up against the hope of the American league.

Amos—Bazillian.

There was a pretty wedding in the West End last evening when, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. H. R. Read, John Amos was united in marriage to Miss Gertrude Bazillian. The couple were unattended and the bride looked charming in a suit of blue mull. The groom is in the employ of the Maritime Dredging Company and his fellow employees presented him with a couch and a handsome chair. Mr. and Mrs. Amos will reside at No. 30 Ludlow Street, West End.

Moncton Transcript—Messrs. C. E. Oak, C. H. Townshend and F. B. Cowgill, of St. John, are guests at the Minto Hotel.
