

Social Notes of the Week

June the month of brides came in with a burst of sunshine. Already many interesting marriages have taken place. Today a royal welcome home will be given one of New Brunswick's noble women, Dr. Catherine Travis, who will return by the Boston boat. Dr. Travis was in Serbia with the relief party organized by the American branch of the Red Cross and who was in Nish at the time of the Austrian occupation, and was also taken prisoner. The Women's Canadian Club with members of other philanthropic societies have arranged for a demonstration of welcome on the arrival of the boat. Lieut. Colonel Beer has kindly allowed the 14th Battalion to be on hand for the occasion. Dr. Travis will spend the summer months at Hampton, a guest of her sister, Miss Minnie Travis, and it is earnestly hoped in the near future St. John citizens may have the pleasure of hearing Dr. Travis give an address on her wonderful experiences.
