FAVOR R. A. LAWLOR FOR JUDGESHIP

Newcastle, August 9.—Following was adopted last night by Newcastle Town Council:

"Whereas by reason of the death of the late Sir Pierre A. Landry an appointment is to be made to the Supreme Court Bench of the province; and

"Whereas the business interests of the North Shore of the province call for the appointment of a judge in this section; and

"Whereas we are aware of the personal and professional qualifications of Mr. Richard A. Lawlor, K. C., which eminently fit him for the proper discharge of the duties of this high office;

"Therefore resolved that this council do hereby express its appreciation of Mr. Lawlor's qualifications for said appointment, and do respectfully submit to the proper authorities its desire that he be so appointed; and

"Further resolved that the Town Clerk do forward a copy of this resolution to Honorable J. D. Hazen and Honorable C. J. Doherty."

HARCOURT

Harcourt, August 7—The very many friends of Mrs. Thos. McWilliam were much shocked to learn of her demise on Wednesday, at the age of seventy-four. Mrs. MacWilliam will not only be missed and held in living memory by her immediate family, a host of friends and the entire community, but also in church work, as well as in every good enterprise that came under her notice. She leaves a sorrowing husband and ten children to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and mother. The daughters are Mrs. Ford of Ford's Mills, and Miss Gussie at home, the sons, Terrance of Bridgewater, N. S.; Harrison and Rankin of Ottawa; Frank of Swift Current, Sask.; Dr. L. J. McWilliams, Earnest and William of Ford's Mills, and Fred at home. Interment was held at Ford's Mills on Saturday. The service at the church was conducted by Rev. J. W. ### CHRISTMAS GIFTS FOR SOLDIERS.

Last year an appeal for Christmas gifts was made for the men of No. 5 Co., Army Service Corps. There was a most generous response and many grateful letters were received in acknowledgment.

Again an appeal is made and donations will be gratefully received by Mrs. David B. Pidgeon at her apartment, 12 Chipman Hill.

It is necessary that all donations shall be received by Sept. 15th in order that they may reach their destination by Christmas.

MISERABLE FROM STOMACH TROUBLE

Felt Wretched Until He Started To Take "Fruit-a-tives"

594 Champlain St., Montreal.

"For two years I was a miserable sufferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I had frequent Dizzy Spells and when I took food, felt wretched and sleepy. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints, and my hands swollen.

A friend advised "Fruit-a-tives" and from the outset, they did me good. After the first box, I felt I was getting well and I can truthfully say that "Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine that helped me."

LOUIS LABRIE.

50c. box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Mrs. Jane Scott and Mr. Robert Scott, Adelaide street, St. John, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Nickerson.

The many friends of Mrs. Jos. Gardiner will be pleased to know that she is recovering after a serious attack of measles.

Miss Eva Hutchison and Miss Craige of Chipman are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen E. Clarke.

Mrs. Isaac Palmer, Hampton, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gardiner for some time.

Miss Greta Johnson, St. John, is spending her vacation with her aunt, Mrs. David McCorkle.

BLOOMFIELD STATION

Bloomfield Station, Aug. 7—Mrs. James Gilchrist, accompanied by her daughter, Louise, is visiting friends and relatives in Sheffield.

Mrs. George R. Davis has returned home after a very pleasant visit of several weeks in Queenston, where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. Avard W. Chapman, who have been visiting the former's parents here, have returned to their home in Everett, Mass.

Gr. C. Brock Flewelling of the 9th Siege Battery spent a few days at his home here. He was accompanied to St. John by his father, C. L. Flewelling. Gr. Flewelling has been chosen as signaller by Major P. W. Wetmore, and left St. John Saturday night for Halifax to take the course necessary to fit him for his new position.

Miss Celia Wetmore, who has been attending the summer school in Sussex, has returned to Bloomfield and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Hughson.

Miss Genevieve Flewelling is visiting friends and relatives in Kingston.

Mrs. Crawford, Kingston, was in Bloomfield for a few days last week. While here she was the guest of her sisters, Mrs. James Hughson and Mrs. A. A. Wetmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Loring, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Kate, and son, Austin, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hatfield, left Saturday in their auto for Perry, Me., where they will be the guests of relatives for a short time.

Mrs. Arthur H. Hayes received for the first time since her marriage on Wednesday and Thursday afternoon. She looked charming in her handsome bridal dress of white satin. Mrs. E. A. Hayes, mother of the groom, received with her, while her cousin, Miss Prince, and Miss Olive Baxter of Lakeside presided over the refreshments in the dining room.

Service was held in the Anglican church last Thursday evening to commemorate the 2nd anniversary of the war. Prayers and intercessions were offered in behalf of the soldiers and sailors, sick and wounded, and for those of our brave fellows who are prisoners of war in the hands of the enemy, for England and her allies.

Appropriate and fitting remarks were made by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Parker. Special hymns selected for the occasion were nicely rendered by the choir.

Mrs. I. B. Wetmore has returned home after a very pleasant visit with friends in Hampton village and Lakeside.

The regular monthly meeting of the Bloomfield Station and Central Norton branch of the Women's Institute was held in Central Norton hall on Friday afternoon. As no meeting was held last month the regular annual business was attended to on Friday.

The election of officers resulted in the president, Mrs. B. C. Williams, vice-president, Mrs. E. Frank Hayes, and secretary-treasurer, Miss Mary Raymond, being re-elected.

Directors are Mrs. E. Roy Raymond, Mrs. James A. Floyd and Mrs. Charlotte Bettle.

Auditors: Miss Hazel Crabbe and Miss Edna Burnett.

Librarian: Miss Grace Wetmore.

It was moved that $3.50 be sent to the Canadian prisoners of war.

Several papers were then read, one by Miss Edna Raymond, "Left-overs and how to use them," was very interesting, and contained a number of very nice recipes. "Good beet dishes" by Mrs. Chas. Hughson, was another excellent paper and thoroughly enjoyed by all present, while "Strawberries and how to use them," by Miss Annie Floyd, made every one feel sorry that the season for them was past. The next meeting will be held in Mission Hall, Bloomfield Station, on Friday, Sept. 1st. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a very pleasant meeting.

Miss Georgie Davis entertained a few friends very pleasantly on Saturday evening.

Alva E. Williams is the guest of friends in Chipman for a few days.

Blood was like Water
Anaemia

You cut your finger and the wound is slow to heal. The blood is watery and fails to form a clot. The lips and gums are pale. You are anaemic.

This condition is best overcome by using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. In this food cure there are combined in concentrated form the elements that go to form new, rich, red blood.

The appetite is sharpened, digestion improves, color and strength return, and you rid yourself of weakness and many annoying derangements.

50 cts. a box, 6 for $2.50, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.
