All committees are working over time and are beginning to see good results for the efforts. The commercial travellers are busy, and when the fourth evening of the month arrives the knights of the Grip will be all ready for the soldier boys and will give them one of the best times in their lives. Nothing is being left undone to make this part of the programme one long to be remembered.

J. Fred Belyea, chairman of the Aquatic Committee, is beaming with smiles, for the interest that has been taken by the oarsmen, both professional and amateur, in great, and the crews of single sculls, have not only proved their proficiency, but application has been made for a sanction for the amateur races, and all that is wanted is time weather for the afternoon of "Joy Day."

The Parade Committee will meet this evening at 8 o'clock sharp, as reports are to be received, the route of march will be decided on and matters regarding the bands will be taken up. Replies to the invitations sent out by the committee to merchants and others to participate in large numbers, and in every case floats are being entered and large bodies of men have signified their intention of being in the procession. The committee will be able towards the latter part of the week to give an idea of what may be expected, and request that all merchants or societies who have not reported to the secretary will kindly do so as soon as possible, as this is important. Any merchant or others who have not received one of the hundred and fifty invitations sent out and wish to assist in the mammoth parade are invited and requested to notify the secretary. As all the local trades unions have not held their special meetings it is not known just what part they will take. A large number of the unions have met and decided to take part, and the others who will meet this week are expected to fall in line with their brothers.

Must Co-Operate With Committees

Clearly up to People of St. John to Assure Complete Success of the Soldiers' Joy Day on 14-15.

It is now clearly up to the people of St. John to assure the complete success of the Soldiers' Joy Day proceedings by co-operating with the committees having undertaken the bedding and feeding of soldier guests. As already fully explained in Saturday's paper the general programme for the 14th and 15th is definitely planned and each committee seems to have its special duties well in hand. The two factors remaining to crown the whole affair with the laurel of satisfactory accomplishment is the hearty response of householders to give visiting soldiers—those who desire free hospitality—lodging and food as deservedly honored guests and the favor of the weather. The Housing Bureau in Imperial Terrace lobbies (phone Main 4938) will enable you as host or hostess. Remember the sacrifice of our boys, forget everything else.

Tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Board of Trade rooms the general hospitality committee will meet and thoroughly go over the whole situation. Judge H. O. McInerney will report to the military accommodations. E. A. Schofield will report to the food supplies and the ladies will report to housing. Representatives from all churches, who are bidden specially to be present, will make known what they can do to help along the brief but important matter of caring for the boys while here.

MILITARY DEPOT PICNIC SATURDAY

Good Attendance at Grand Bay—Excellent Program of Sports and Supper During Afternoon.

The picnic of the military depot was held Saturday at Grand Bay. About 250 people were in attendance and a very enjoyable time was spent. The party went out on the country and returned in the early evening. The afternoon was taken up with sports and picnicking and a supper, prepared by the officers' wives, was served. Two hundred adults set down at one time. This was the big feature of the outing and these present did full justice to all the eatables. This popular pastime was in charge of Mrs. Donnelly and Mrs. Major. After the supper the prizes won during the afternoon were presented by Mrs. Donnelly.

The winners of the different events were as follows: 50 yards dash (ladies)—Mrs. Arsenault, first; Mrs. Greenan, second; mens' foot and shoe race—James, first; Sergeant Dixon, second; ladies' sack race—Miss Berne, first; Miss Lake, second; mens' sack race—Sergeant Devolve, first; Sergeant Miller, second; mens' race (three and needle)—Sergeant McDonald and Miss Gorman, first; Sergeant Dickie and Miss Lake, second; three-legged race—Corp. Arsenault and Sergeant Miller, first; children's race, girls under 10 years—Alice White, first; Alice Poye, second; boys under 10 years—Jack Dickie, first; Jack Dove, second; ladies' tug of war—Miss Lake, Miss Modell, Mrs. Berne, Miss Gorman, Miss Chisholm, Miss Gorman and Miss Gorman, mens' who's the better—Sergeant Devolve, first; Sgt. Vener, second; ladies' speed race—Miss A. Lake, first; Mrs. Dickie, second; girls between 10 and 15 years—John Egan, first; M. Roxborough, second; boys (10 to 15 years)—Roland Biglow, first; Stanley Hughes, second; mens' race (100 yards)—Sergeant James, first; Lieut. Ritchie, second; broad jump—Sergeant Ricketts, first; Capt. Roxborough, second.

The tug of war was won by the Army Service Corps team.

OCCUPIED PULPIT AT THE TABERNACLE

Rev. Roden Nelson Rand of Maulins, New York, Preached at Both Services Yesterday—Some Much Appreciated.

Rev. Roden Nelson Rand of Maulins, New York, occupied the pulpit of the Tabernacle Baptist church at both services yesterday and his sermons were much appreciated by good congregations. Mr. Rand is an interesting preacher and makes his points with a wealth of illustration which commands the attention of his hearers. At the evening service he took his text from Mark 2-10, and developed the subject of the universality of the character and teachings of Christ. The great distinction of the religion taught by the Nazarene and which marked his difference from most other religions was that it was stripped of all artificiality and repose on the idea of confidence in God and one's fellow men. The religions of Christ knew nothing of the barriers of race, profession, class or the other artificial divisions of mankind, but appealed to all humanity. This religion had been accepted universally, and was continuing its conquest of the people of the earth.

The speaker pointed out that the dominant trait in the character of Christ was His sympathy with the poor and suffering, and this sympathy found its expression in His religion, which had His message for the uplift as well as for the fit. This sympathy gave warrant to a universal hope in the salvation of His teachings.

LOVERS' HARD LUCK

Youthful Romeo and Juliet Charged With Vagrancy.

New York, July 31.—On a bench in Prospect Park this morning a boy and a girl who had been there all night, crying a little, holding hands a little, star-gazing a little until they grew sleepy, awoke when Policeman McConville of the park squad stood looking down at them, smiling.

He had been there for quite a while, unwilling to disturb the picture which reminded him of the pair of the babes in the wood. Twice he had gone off about his duties, coming back afterward to see if they had finished their sleep. Then, when they awoke, he asked the necessary questions.

The girl said she was Musette Bragg, 17 years old, of 74 Halsey street. The boy, who still wears knicker-bockers, although he is sixteen, was Matthew Boy of 433 Prospect Place.

"We love each other," they said, "and our parents don't want us to."

"That was the whole story—except that it was made clear later in the Police court that their love was an idle Romeo and Juliet affair, even though it was necessary to charge the youngsters with vagrancy and turn them over to a probation officer until Saturday.

"But I want it understood," declared Musette, "that this is the sort of base some people might think."

FUNERALS

The funeral of Norman N. Gregory was held yesterday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock from his late residence, Prince William street, and was very largely attended. The burial took place in the cemetery at 4.30 o'clock. The services at the home and in Trinity church were conducted by Rev. Canon Armstrong. Interment was in Fernhill cemetery.

ST. JOHN GIRL FOURTH ON LIST

St. John is not the only city in Canada where the use of lemon juice is supplemented by drugs. All over Canada complaints are made that men and women are seeking the stimulation of drugs, but it has not yet been determined whether prohibition or the high cost of living is responsible.

The increase in the consumption of opiates last year was so marked that the Government has considered it necessary to impose restrictions on such imports. They may now be brought in only by license. The increase last year was nothing short of alarming. In 1918 a total of 12,471 pounds of crude opium was imported, while in the fiscal year ended March 31 of this year it had jumped to the total of 34,253 pounds. Of powdered opium, 51 pounds was imported in 1918 and 123 in 1919. The value of the crude opium brought in 1918 was $148,946, in the recent fiscal year it was $534,555.

Much the same situation obtains in regard to cocaine and morphine, a total of 470 ounces of cocaine was imported in 1918 in the last fiscal year it had jumped to 12,333 ounces.

Of morphine the 1918 figures were 27,520 ounces, and this year 30,057. Under the regulations which it has been found expedient to adopt these drugs can be imported only under license, and the application must state the name of the importer, the intended destination and the use to which it will be put.

Officially no cause is assigned for the marked increase in consumption.

PREDICTS RUSSIA WILL SOON BE FREE OF BOLSHIEVIK

The positive statement that Bolshevism would be driven out of Russia within the next six months was made upon the arrival here recently of the Stockholm, of the Swedish-American line, from Gothenburg, Sweden, by H. I. Jacobson, who was at the pier to meet his wife and daughter, Mr. Jacobson, and to have been the heaviest depositor in the Petrograd branch of the National City Bank, preceded his family to the United States two months ago.

"Within six months we shall be back in Russia, from which we were driven by the Bolsheviki," declared Mr. Jacobson. "It is absolutely sure that within six months the Bolsheviki in Bolshevism shall have been wiped out of that country."

Mrs. Jacobson and her daughter Carmen were practically refugees from Petrograd. All their personal possessions were confiscated by the Bolsheviki. The Petrograd branch of the National City Bank was moved to a place of safety in Finland when Russia became untenable. Mr. Jacobson, the Russian representative on the American Du Ponts and had important dealings with the American banking house there.

W. A. F. Ekemgren, Swedish Minister to the United States, returned after a vacation of two months in Sweden, accompanied by his American wife. They will spend the summer at Edgerton, Martha's Vineyard, after a few days at the Hotel Vanderbilt in this city.

Many great fortunes have been made in Sweden during the war as in most all countries," he said, "formerly, the poorer classes have suffered. The Swedish government has instituted a system of pensions so as to assist those too poor to afford the necessities of life, a system which is still in force and which has not been conducive to promoting labor production.

"Wages are very high in Sweden and labor has adopted a new standard of living."

Capt. Nils Kihlman, Swedish Naval Attaché to Tokio, accompanied by his wife, who has not been in the United States.

Abraham Shedyak, a fur merchant, accompanied by his wife, declared that they were refugees from Moscow, where they left stock of furs which they valued at $250,000 in the hands of the Bolsheviki.

Clifton Pedree, American Consul at Malmo, Sweden, who returned for a vacation in the United States, and Charles Gummelius, shipping man, of No. 11 Broad street, who has had a stay in Sweden, got up a cabaret on board the Stockholm which $400 was raised for the Swedish Red Cross.

Most of the New Brunswick delegates to the National Liberal Convention left for Ottawa on Saturday or Sunday. Over 150 delegates from Nova Scotia passed through Moncton on Saturday—Complexion of Convention is Anti-Union.

On the four standing committees of the convention, whose personnel was announced on Saturday, there is not a single Liberal Unionist. The committees consist entirely of representatives of the rump party led by members of the old guard who stood by Laurier to the last. W. T. R. Preston seems to be boss of the machine politicians from Ontario.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, the logical leader for Quebec, has not been recognized, prominent places on the committee being given to Hon. Jacques Brouin and Ernest Lapointe.

Owing to the harvest being in full swing it is expected that the west will only send a small number of delegates.

The Montreal delegation is said to be strong for Fielding, but the great majority of the Quebec delegates are opposed to the selection of a Liberal Unionist. On Saturday it was reported that a Quebec delegate would move a resolution calling upon all the delegates from that province to abstain from voting on the question of selecting a leader. The idea of this proposition is that Quebec would then only have to support the Liberal leader while he supported the interests of Quebec.

Another suggestion emanating from the Quebec Liberals is that the party should try a dual leadership, and it is said many of the Quebec delegates want Premier Gouin and Premier Marois to share the honor and responsibility. Evidently the new leader or leaders will have some responsibility.

THE PRACTICING PIPERS AT FINA

The Practicing Pipers at Finna! "Twas a dull dripping day when we met them. We were waiting a call at the first crack of day. When beside our brows' billet they started to play. Can we ever forgive or forget them? The squeaking, appealing to bandy-legged Jack. Set our nerves all on edge by the discordant shock.

Oh, the Practicing Pipers at Finna!—The kilted folk of fancy of Hades! Melody varies in fancy and theme! But the Yank understands not the Highland's scream. 'Tis uncouth, like the dress of these ladies. 'From the moaning and groaning from morning till night. Said the Yankee, 'no wonder these devils can fight."

Oh, the Practicing Pipers at Finna!—The music of Scotland and hither! 'Tis no piping of Pan by the woodland and rush—The harmonious note of the even ing's lark. 'Tis the song of the bayonets a glitter. 'The dreaming and screaming of contempt and blood—and the count of Victorious passion let loose like a food!

Oh, the Practicing Pipers at Finna!—The music of stern consolation! The high strident strains of muffled men. With the crash and the cadence recurring again. The Purpose—the Soul of the nation, In battle, the rattle of rifle fire there. Is lost in the shriek of a wild Highland air.

Oh, the Practicing Pipers at Finna!—The call of the wounded and dying—The song of the Scotchman until his last breath. Of filtration with Life, and of banter with Death. The wail of the fatherless, crying. For hiving, or striking, the heart into flame, 'Tis the music to follow to Death of the Famine.

Nature's Healing Herbs for Headache

A BLOOD FOOD. PRACTICALLY all headaches come from two causes—Biliousness and Nervousness. Biliousness means upset stomach, indigest
