POOR DOCUMENT

SEMI-WEEKLY, TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1903.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Dec. 20.-Richmond Bishop, formerly of this place, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Bishop, after an absence of seven

Miss Cox, of Truro (N. S.), is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Rus-

Joseph Allingham, who has been teaching at Millstream, Kings county, is visit-ing friends at the Hill.

teen years.

Miss Adams, of Metapedia, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Mc-

The roll call, in connection with the Baptist church, will be held here Wednes-

SUSSEX.

Sussex, Dec. 22.-Dr. D. H. McAllister, Sussex, Dec. 22.—Dr. D. H. McAllister, wife and child left this afternoon by C. P. R. for Montreal to spend the Christmas holidays with friends at Mrs. McAllister's old home.

John H. Morrison shipped a very small pony yesterday to Floreneeville, Carleton county. The same man bought one from him last year.

Bedford, Kings county, N. B., Dec. 19—The river has frozen over here and teams are crossing on the ice, but the roads are bare. H. E. Lasquire and W. H. Whelpley still hold the record of being the first persons to cross the ice at Bedford wharf with horses, on Dec. 16th. Notwithstanding a few hours later Allen Miller and son, of Centreton, crossed with a heavy team from the Public Landing to this stide and when within a few seed home from sea, after being absent for several months.

Mrs. H. E. Lasquire, of this place, who is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. A. S. Belbin, of St. John, expects to be home for Christmas.

John Kirk, who has purchased a farm here has got a lot of ploughing done for next season and is making much needed repairs.

Roy Kirk was the first to risk life and limb to cross the ice at this place on skates.
School closed on the 18th and the teacher, Miss Jessie R. Tilliland, of Westfield, will leave for home today, but will return after holidays to resume her school. She is much liked by children, parents and trustees.
Capt. D. L. Whittaker, who has retired from sea, is now in the woods getting out lumber.

Wild geese passed over here last evenirg.

Joseph Aklingham, who has been teaching at Millstream, Kings county, is visiting friends at the Hill.

Mice Olivia J. Moore, teacher of the primary department at Sussex Corner, is spending her vacation at her home here.

The Miss's Mary Archibald, Ruthie Mitton and Bertha West returned from Normal School yesterday to spend the vacation at their homes here.

Mes M. E. McLeod, who has be neaching at Memel, has gone to Moncton to visit friends. The school closes for the winter.

Norman Kienstead and bride, formerly Miss Christina Butterfield, of Mountville, left yesterday morning for their home at Bangor (Me.)

Rev. J. K. King, pastor of the Methodist church, who has been quite ill at his home at Albert for the last two weeks, is very much improved, but is not yet able to fill his appointments.

Charles Bishop, of Eastport (Me.), and formerly of this place is paying a visit to friends here after an absence of thirteen years.

Miss Adams, of Metapedia, is visiting at MONCTON.

Moncton, Dec. 22—(Special)—The committee representing I. C. R. trackmen is here considering the answer of the management to the request for an increase of pay. The men submitted their request to Hon. Mr. Fielding on Nov. 21 and on Dec. Hon. Mr. Fle.ding on Nov. 21 and on Dee. 19 received an answer from Mr. Pottinger.

The chairman of the committee told your correspondent that the general manager's reply is not quite up to what the order asked for. The committee tonight is considering the question of accepting the increase granted or making further representations to the management. sentations to the management.

The grievance committee of the I. C. R. telegraphers had a conference with the teregraphers had a conference with the management today in reference to the reinstallment of Percy McMahon, an operator in the Moncton I. C. R. yard office who was discharged recently for accepting an order for a train that had departed.

WELSFORD.

Welsford, N. B., Dec. 22-Postmaster

Petitcodiac, N. B., Dec. 22—While the maritime winter fair was in progress at Amherst (N. S.) a number of bee keepers met together and organized the Maritime Beekegers' Association, with the following officers: E. L. Colpitas, Petitcodiac (N. B.), president; B. W. Baker, Amherst (N. S.), secretary-treasurer; Weston Jones, Bayfield, vios-president for New Brunswick; Rev. J. S. McGregor, Oxford, vice-president for Nova Scotts; Rev. A. E. Burke, Alberton, vice-president for P. E. Island.
The objects of the association are to hold at least once a year, a convention for the purpose of exchanging ideas and discussing methods of bee-management, and generally to advance the bee-keeping industry in the eastern provinces.

It is hoped that all maritime province bee-keepers will avail themselves of this opportunity to unite and push this business.

WASHADEMOAK.

Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Cure COSTS NOTHING IF IT FAILS.

y honest person who suffers from Rhe sm is welcome to this offer. For yea arched everywhere to find a specific f ist in your view. It is to you can secure lix bottles of Dr. Shoe's Rheumatic Cure to make the test. You may take it a full month on trial. If it succeeds the cost to you is $5.50. If it fails the loss is mine and mine alone. It will be left entirely to you. I will be left entirely to you. I will be left entirely to you. I was that exactly. If you say the trial is

word of the control o

here, en route to their home in Bangor (Me.)

The many friends of Winifred W. Ganong looking hale and hearty. Mr. Ganong intends returning west in the early spring.

Among those who have arrived for the holiday season are 'Rev. M. L. Gregg and Miss Lottle Gregg, Miss Annie Johnson, Miss Sadie Brown, Artie Ganong and Charles Gregg.

William Johnson has purchased the Isaac Gamblin cottage at Apohaqui, and is removing his family there.

Miss Daisy Ganong returned home on Saturday from Hillsboro, for a short visit.

Truro, Dec. 19.—Nearly every school and ollege has had a special closing function. In the common schools several of the eachers provided a Christmas tree for the hildren and the others gave a treat of some kind. The Domestic Science closing was on Thursday afternoon. Last evening the Empire Business Col-

Last evening the Empire Business College was at home to about 200 guests, in the Y. M. C. A. hall.

The Bachelors' ball was given on Thursday evening in the Royal Bank building, and about 100 guests were present, including several from Moneton, New Glasgow and Halifax. The music was provided by the Truro orchestra. Mrs. John Stanfield and Mrs. Martin Dickie were the chaperons.

The Metropolitan Rink is being flooded

The Metropolitan Rink is being flooded and prepared for the season's sport.

Mrs. Hoar, of East Mountain, recently celebrated her 85th birthday at the

J. B. Calkin and his granddaughter, Miss Jean Patterson, has returned from their visit in Berwick.

Miss Whitney, of Newcastle (N. B.), assistant teacher in the Truro kindergarten, left on Friday for her home, to spend the Christmas vacation.

Thomas Reid, brakeman on the I. C. R., is now in the general hospital in Montreal, having his arm treated. It was badly hurt some time ago, by having a car run over it. car run over it.

The Albion Lumber Co. of Moser River expects to log about 4,000,000 feet of lumber this winter.

It Should Have Been Called New Scotland, Says Andrew Carnegie

New York, Dec. 22.—The annual dinner of the New England Society of the City of New York, held tonight in the Waldorf-Astoria, was a more notable affair than any held during the ninety-eight years since the incorporation of the society. There were 554 diners and the distinguished speakers included Whitelaw Reid, Andrew Carnegie, Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hollis, General H. C. Corbin and R. M. Stuart-Worthly.

After a toast had been drunk to The President of the United States, Whitlaw Reid discussed "Forefathers" Day."

Andrew Carnegie responded to the toast Scotland and New England—One in Faith and Deed. He said in part:—

Chicago, Dec. 22—"Not poisoned, but dead to the control of the control of the Chicago, Dec. 22—"Not poisoned, but dead to the control of the Chicago, Dec. 22—"Not poisoned, but dead to the control of the Chicago, Dec. 22—"Not poisoned, but dead to the control of the control of the Chicago, Dec. 22—"Not poisoned, but dead to the control of the control o and Deed. He said in part:—

"Mr. President, New England seems in the land of the mountain and the floed' in every feature. Should she ever con-clude to be re-christened after her true adude to be re-christened after her true mother and bear the proud name to which she is entitled, 'New Scotland,' how Scotland would be uplifted.

"Old Scotland and New Scotland, 'as they always have stood in the past for the same causes, stand today prepared to do or die as of yore, in the future if needful, for civil and religious liberty, national independence, for the royalty of man and in defense of these would march today to stake the fargot, exultingly as their force.

because she thought she had been poisoned," one respect to have been unfortunate. She was surely christened wrongly at her birth. There must have been some mistake. Everything points to a case of substitution, religiously, educationally or so-stitution, religiously, educationally or so-stitution, religiously, educationally or so-stitution.

THAT Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine possesses unusual merit as a treatment for Throat and Lung Diseases has been proven in a score

It has stood the test of time.

It has gradually grown more popular year by year.

It has at least three times the sale of any similar preparation.

It is to be found in the homes of the great majority as the favorite treatment for COUGHS, COLDS, CROUP, BRONCHITIS, Etc.

'Tis Merit That Brings Success.

TS it any wonder that there are many imitations of so successful a family remedy?

What we would emphasize is the necessity of care in buying

You cannot afford to risk health, or life itself, to nitation or substitute which has not sufficient merit to work its own way.

Look for the PORTRAIT and SIGNATURE of DR. A. W. CHASE on the bottle you buy.

There are the best guarantee which any medicine can bear.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine

Is wonderfully successful as a cure for CROUP, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, ASTHMA, and SEVERE CHEST COLDS; 25 Cents a Bottle, family size (three times as much), 60 Cents. At all Dealers, or EDMANSON, BATES & CO., TORONTO. To protect you against imitations the Portrait and Signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle.

Any preparation which has not sufficient merit to work its own way in the world is not good enough for you to depend on in the time of sickness.