

Inspection of Cattle.

shoulders and lard, or payment of the duty secured by the said bond, then the said bond shall be and become null and void, otherwise shall remain in full force and virtue.

2. After the reception of the swine into the bonding warehouse or slaughter house, it shall not be lawful to remove any of them alive therefrom, under any pretence or for any reason whatever.

3. The product of such swine, after having been slaughtered, shall not be removed for any purpose from the bonding place, without a permit from the collector or proper officer of customs, as in the case of all other bonded goods.

4. The bond given by the importer as before specified, shall be cancelled upon payment of the current rate of duty imposed upon swine imported into Canada, or upon exportation of sixty-five per cent of the live weight of swine, weighing two hundred pounds and under, or upon the exportation of seventy per cent of the live weight of the swine, weighing over two hundred pounds as originally entered, in the form of pork, bacon, hams, shoulders and lard; and if a less quantity than seventy per cent is exported, then duty shall be paid upon the quantity deficient, at the rate imposed upon the live animal in proportion to value.

5. Slaughtered swine may be imported to be cured and packed in bond and entered in the usual way for warehouse, and be placed in the premises established as a warehouse of this class for the special purpose of curing and packing. The weight and value of such carcasses shall be stated upon the face of the entry for warehouse, and the importer shall execute a bond to the queen, with two sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the collector of customs at the port where such carcasses are imported or warehoused, in double the amount of duty accruing thereupon, to be calculated according to the highest rate of duty imposed by the tariff upon any part or parts of the said carcasses, conditioned for the due exportation of the same or payment of duty within one year from date of first entry.

6. The meats, being the produce of such carcasses, shall be calculated for exportation or duty, as the case may be, after allowing in respect of meat in pickle a reduction of five per cent from the original weight, or weight for first entry, and these percentages may be deducted by compensation entries from the warehouse books at the time of each ex-warehouse entry, in proper proportions, and if any less quantity is exported than the original weight, less the allowance above specified, the duty shall be collected upon such deficiency at the rate of duty required at the time by law upon meats of the kinds exported.

7. The live swine imported for slaughter and the swine carcasses introduced for curing and packing shall not be permitted to come in contact with Canadian animals.

8. The cars, trucks and other vehicles employed in such traffic shall not be used for the transport of Canadian animals.

9. The bonding places hereinbefore mentioned are hereby declared to be infected places, subject to such regulations as the minister of agriculture may see fit to adopt for the purpose of preventing the introduction of disease among the live stock of the country.

10. The transport of the swine imported for slaughter and of the carcasses imported to be cured and packed, and every proceeding in relation to the said traffic shall be subjected to inspection and regulation in pursuance with the meaning of "The Health of Animals Order," under direction of the minister of agriculture, and the "General Disposition," being the 28th section of said order, shall apply to the execution of the present order.

J. O. COTÉ,
Clerk of the Privy Council.
