"AN EXPECTANT HEIR TO MILLIONS."—A novel, by Chas. Macknight Sain. Cloth, 12mo. 75 cents. Mr. Sain has written a story full of humorous and interesting situations. No attempt has been made to solve any problems, or introduce new theories, but simply to drive away dull care; and wherever rests a frown, to change it into a smile. The readers' attention is held from the first to the last page.

"SAINTS, SINNERS AND QUEER PEOPLE."—A compilation of short stories, by Marie Edith Beynon, author of "Love Affairs of an Old Bachelor," "Rochester Seaforth," etc. Cloth, 12mo. 75 cents. The authoress, who is a general contributor to the "Midland Monthly" and other magazines, has, in the above book, excelled her previous undertakings in the literary line, and will be appreciated by all those who are lovers of pathetic and humorous pen pictures.

"THE ABDUCTION OF PRINCESS CRIEMHELD."—By Prof. Le Roy F. Griffin. Cloth, 12mo. $1.00. Prof. Le Roy F. Griffin has proven in his latest book, that he is a very versatile man. To turn at will, from the serious study of science, to the producing of fiction, is a talent accorded to
