

X-Men roll to 40-14 victory in College Bowl

By BARRY RUST
(CUP Staff Writer)

TORONTO — St. Francis Xavier gave Waterloo-Lutheran a lesson in football basics Saturday in Toronto, and rolled to an easy 40-14 victory in the second annual College Bowl game.

Operating behind a punishing offensive line and an extremely well-balanced attack directed by substitute quarterback Terry Dolan, the X-Men from Antigonish, N.S. piled up 510 offensive yards before more than 12,000 fans at Varsity Stadium.

Playing his first college game as a starting quarterback, Dolan passed almost at will against the two-three pass defence used by the Golden Hawks most of the afternoon. He completed 12 of 19 passes for 282 yards and four touchdowns.

Three of Dolan's touchdown passes went to halfback Terry Gorman, named the game's outstanding player. Gorman, who has played every minute of the X-Men's seven games this season, also intercepted two Waterloo-Lutheran passes.

Halfback Terry Arnason caught Dolan's fourth touchdown pass, while fullback Paul Brule scored the other two St. Francis majors. The 190-pound Brule provided most of the Maritime champion's rushing attack carrying the ball 33 times for 172 yards.

NO OFFENSE

Showing little of the form that propelled them to an undefeated season in the Ontario Intercollegiate Football Conference and third place in national ratings, the Golden Hawks were restricted to only occasional offensive thrusts.

Hawks' quarterback Dave McKay had a horrible afternoon passing the ball, completing only four of twelve pass attempts for 97 yards. Most of that yardage came on a 66-yard touchdown play with halfback Chris Bailey in the third quarter.

At halftime, with his team trailing 27-7, McKay had completed only one pass "good" for a loss of one yard. Waterloo-Lutheran's first touchdown was the result of a four-yard end sweep by Murray Markowitz with 20 seconds left to play in the first half.

Thanks to Markowitz, halfback John Krupse and fullback John Watson, who gained 61, 51, and 50 yards respectively, the Golden Hawks did manage to compile a respectable rushing total of 177 yards.

St. Francis outweighed Waterloo-Lutheran along the line by an average of about 15 pounds per player.

Regular St. Francis quarterback Dick Pandolfo dressed for the game but did not play. He suffered a severely-pulled hamstring muscle a week earlier in a game against St. Mary's University in Halifax.

St. Francis quarterback leads team to bowl win

TORONTO—It's a long way from St. Mary's High School in Calgary to St. Francis Xavier University in Nova Scotia and an appearance in the College Bowl.

But for 18-year-old Terry Dolan, who suddenly found himself St.

Francis' number one quarterback mid-way through last Saturday's game against Waterloo-Lutheran University, it may mean the beginning of a very bright football career.

Ignoring post-game beer in the dressing room, except for one can dumped over his head by enthusiastic teammates, the 6'3", 170-pound rookie explained to reporters how he had masterminded the victory that astonished some 12,000 fans in Varsity Stadium.

"We had a little trouble at first. I guess I was a little nervous," he shouted above the din of the celebration. "Then we realized they were only sending three men deep on pass plays. Their corners were just dropping off two, maybe three yards." Our spotter told me to put two on one in the flat. It worked, so we just kept flooding one side and then the other.

"I couldn't believe it. They stayed in the same defence all afternoon. I always knew I had a play that would work."

Across the room, Terry Gorman, the Ted Morris Memorial Trophy winner as the game's outstanding player, was whooping it up.

BACKWOODS NO MORE

"Boy, they can't call us backwoods football players anymore," he hollered. "That's what we talked about before the game," he said later. "You don't know what it meant."

Head coach Don Loney chewed an unlit cigar and showed little emotion over his team's victory.

"It was a good day for us," he said. "I was a little surprised at that pass defence. I thought they'd change it but they never did."

Could his club beat Toronto or Queen's? "Gosh, I don't know. Ah," he smiled. "We'd give 'em a pretty good game."

At the other end of the stadium, a dejected Dave Knight, who said before the game he thought his club could beat any college team in Canada, tried to explain his controversial pass defence.

"I tried to change it a little," he said. "But I didn't dare drop more men back or they'd have beat us to death on the ground. They were bigger and faster than I thought they would be," he said.

"That's really what happened on some of those pass plays—they just outran us."

He reprimanded a player for kicking a locker door, then added: "And stronger. Bigger, faster and stronger, that's all."

Badminton

Students interested in playing badminton are invited to the ed gym Monday and Tuesday nights from 7 to 10 p.m. and to the phys ed west gym Friday nights at the same times.

Bring your own racquets, equipment and birds.

Anyone interested in participating in an Edmonton inter-club league is asked to contact Willard Roelofs at 329-4208 for details.

It's happening on December 1st and 2nd

That's the day the man from Great-West Life will be on campus. He'll be here to inform you about the many avenues for success that are available to you through Great-West Life . . . a leader in the insurance industry in North America. In one interview you'll find out about such exciting and promising fields as: Research and Development, Investment Management, Sales Management, Data Processing and Actuarial Management.

Graduates who are looking ahead are looking into Great-West Life. Discuss your career plans with the man from Great-West Life on your campus.

Arrange for an appointment with your Placement Officer and be sure to pick up a copy of our careers booklet.

THE
Great-West Life
ASSURANCE COMPANY

HEAD OFFICE • WINNIPEG, CANADA

