New entertainment chairman has stormy reception

By DERWIN GOWAN

Quite a controversy is raging ver the replacement of Gary Vood as entertainment chairman y Mike Hanusiak Winter carnival chairman Brent

Ielanson resigned his position in rotest along with pubs officer Don

Other persons have voiced their lisapproval as well.

The row started at the last Student Council meeting last April when the applications committee recommended Hanusiak's appointment. A motion to this effect was put forward by vice president Gary Stairs and seconded by president Warren McKenzie.

However, this was met with a counter motion by Jim MacLean and Gordon Kennedy that council move into committee of the whole to discuss the appointment. Kennedy was told of the intended move before the meeting and went prepared to defend Wood's interest. He had letters of recommendation pointing out Wood's strong points from Melanson, Love, then SUB Board of directors chairman Roy Neale, McLeod House social chairman Lynda Armstrong, STU director of student affairs Bonnie Robinson, and then SUB administrator Kevin McKinney. However, these letters were not allowed to be used as Hanusiak declined to enter the debate, saying he would abide by the decision of council and applications committee. The motion to go into committee was defeated 10 to four. Barry Harbinson, seconded by Stairs, moved that the SRC call for the question and this passed nine to three, with two abstentions.

After further debate Kennedy and MacLean moved that the SRC ask the applications committee to was one abstention from the pro Hanusiak faction.

Finally, the motion to appoint Hanusiak passed, moved by McKenzie and comptroller Wence Batanyita, ten to four. Kennedy went on record as being opposed. Some say the debate took an hour, others an hour and a half. All agree that it was stormy. Wood told The Brunswickan, "It's a damned sin that the student body doesn't realize what kind games the SRC is playing with their money." McKenzie replied to charges that he had something to gain by Hanusiak's appointment, "Where can I go from president. I'm going McKenzie said he never argued whether Wood was good or bad before council, although he said he did have his opinions. He mentioned damages done to the entertainment office. He advised council to either accept or reject the applications committee's prore-examine the two contenders for posal, but to keep personalities out off by university maintenance and security men will patrol the area. the job. This was defeated the of it. "I have to defend same as before, except that there constitution," McKenzie said. the job. This was defeated the of it. "I have to defend the "I told him when he complained after the meeting if you have objections to the procedures which were used, then write me a letter which I will take to council," McKenzie said. "They both (Wood and Melanson) agreed that this was eminently fair. No letter was forthcoming." Therefore, McKenzie assumed the issue was closed.

"There was no procedural problem. It was just sour grapes. Council has the final voice," McKenzie continued. "All he's ever done is resort to name calling," he said. "I can only assume he didn't have a case."

SRC vice president Gary Stairs said he believed the SRC made the right choice.

According to Wood, he is much more qualified than Hanusiak. He only uses one agency to solicit bands, Wood claimed. Also, the SRC sent Wood to entertainment conferences around the country in the expectation that he would be able to use this for the benefit of the student body.

Bruns

Dineer

funera

a patie

maste

teach

profes

depar

30, 19

conti

electi

ard !

Melanson said with respect to his chairmanship, "I have made it clear that I will reinstated as soon as the SRC conducts an investigation." According to Melanson, Wood was ousted officially because of a "dirty office," and an "irregular lifestyle." These accusations, he claimed, were untrue. He also pointed out the number of favourable recommendations. Melanson concluded, 'This is typical of SRC 'real politic" Councillor Margot Brewer con-curred. "I didn't feel that the evidence surrounging Mr. Wood's rejection was clearly or satisfactorily stated. I was not aware nor made satisfactorily aware of any external dissatisfaction in the course of his duties."

Octoberfest chairman Eric Semple, now resigned for personal reasons, affiliated with the entertainment office; for example, Winter Carnival, Fall Festival, and CHSR; and being a first year student, I was thoroughly disillusioned with the affairs of student government, especially certain members of the executive."

The president of STU Student Union said he enjoyed working with Wood and that UNB-STU relations, strained at the best of times, were as good as ever at the present. This was in part due to Wood, he said. However, he had no comment with respect to Hanusiak as he had never met him. He was reluctant to interfere with UNB

Continued on page 5

Vandals hit students

By CHRIS HUNT

The rising wave of crime and vandalism seems to have at last reached the areas of Fredericton just off campus.

Cathy Baldwin, a student living at 711 Windsor Street, is one of the people hurt by these incidents. A oath leading from Graham street hrough her backyard, and thence to the university, has led to vandalism of her property.

People, assumedly students, cut through her yard at night and since last weekend have painted the two

Baldwin also says that these intruders have been tearing the clothes off the line.

cars in the driveway with orange

The path is going to be blocked

First dean of faculty appointed

University of New Brunswick president John M. Anderson today announced two appointments in the new faculty of physical education and recreation.

The first dean of the faculty will be Garth A. Paton from the University of Western Ontario.

Peter C. Kelly, athletics director at UNB since 1947, has been appointed director of administrative services. Mr. Kelly's responsibilities will be expanded with the appointment, in such areas as coordinating faculty, intramural and community use of facilities.

Dr. Paton has taught since 1966 at Western, where he was appointed assistant dean of physical education in 1972. He earned a PhD degree at the University of Illinois in 1970, and in 1965 received the Seward Staley Award from the Phi Epsilon Kappa professional physical education fraternity for outstanding performance as a graduate student.

Before earning an MA degree at

Dr. Paton was chairman of physical education at Stayner District Collegiate, 1961-63, and Collingwood District Collegiate, 1957-61. On receiving a BA degree from Western in 1956 he was awarded a University Gold Medal.

Dr. Paton's publications include articles on administrative theory in physical education. He is an active member of the Canadian Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation, and of the National College Physical the University of Michigan in 1963, Education Association for Men.

SANSUI

10% Discount to Students in September! SANSUI

SANSUI

