

DISTRACTIONS

Well...another year/another comic strip.
 another year/another poetry session

Student involvement in the DISTRACTIONS has always proven to be successful. This year will be no exception, with more student contributions and imagination. If you feel the urge to draw a comic or produce poetry, DISTRACTIONS will print it. Please send to... "The Brunswickan Rm. 35 Student Union Building"

Epitaph

Two atoms in time
 Meet at destiny's doorstep,
 An attraction mutually felt
 They came together
 Creating memories that will
 Last until that day;

Nothing can destroy it,
 Or make it change,
 No one wants to distort the be
 A monument of past love
 Placed in the center
 Of history's gallery,
 Forever to be admired
 By anyone who knows of its sculpters,

And moves even those Who have no knowledge of
 This collision at the entrance of fate.
 Memories, the epitaphs
 Of the wonderful pasts.
