Ottawa, October 15, 1914.

Mr. James B. Reynolds,
105 West 40th Street,
New York City.

My dear Reynolds:

I have received the Century Year Book, and have looked over the names it contains. On an attached sheet I am including a list of those with whom I am personally acquainted. The number, I regret to say, is few. There are others I have met, but I doubt very much if they will at all remember ever having met me. For this reason I have included only those who I think have some personal knowledge, not of myself alone, but also of my work.

I am returning the book under separate cover, and hope it will reach you safely. It is indeed very kind of you and Greene to arrange for my name to go up. I should feel it a very great honour to be elected a member of the Century Club, and if elected, the pleasure would be the greater through life were this end attained through the good offices of two such kind and generous friends.

Yours very sincerely,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
