

GLADSTONE MURRAY
VICTORY BUILDING
TORONTO

134149

June 16th 1959

Dear Mr. Meighen: Please accept my humble but enthusiastic tribute on the occasion of your birthday. As one of the real builders of this new nation you created what probably will be the decisive factor in the protection of freedom.

My father (who lived to be ninety-seven) told me on his eighty-fifth birthday that he did not fully enjoy life until after he was eighty. He explained that it took four-score years to free him from the tyranny of sentiment and emotion!

With best wishes
Sincerely yours
Gladstone Murray
