

There is nothing in it but to not all we can, in 9 fancy the years till we are grey older. I don't see how you stand the strain in it is needed or well or physical and constant. We would have liked so much to have you with us in Seattle, but I feel it is not for you to come up here, especially when the children are at home, in I know that they have brought me to go down there harder on you. Helen wanted me to go down there in the holidays but I am better at home when the children are not at school.
 I had a letter from George today, she said they had enjoyed their visit with you so much. Did you know that Sir Pearson did very excellently in Costa Rica, just after the earthquake there? No doubt they had had no particular thought of it - must have been his heart.
 I had a very nice letter from Mike Pearson in answer to my note and she told me about his knowledge. That was look I remember of complaining, but as she says she had an example before her for years. Their two lives have been a tragedy but they have both triumphed over their surroundings. You have certainly been more than good to them I do hope the missing money has up for that is rather too large a sum to go away; from George's letter to me I don't think she had ever mentioned her condition to you, but that is one thing I never could understand about her. I don't help telling if anyone had been as good to me as you have to her, and it would be a joy to tell. I am very glad to have seen the letters. I don't write East-west as I have been very busy housecleaning and I find I haven't the strength I used to have I find more easily.
